

Recent Law Books from Australia – June 2016

Mary Martin Booksellers Pte Ltd

Blk 231, Bain Street

#03-05, Bras Basah Complex

Singapore 180231

Tel : +65-6883-2284/6883-2204

Fax :+65-6883-2144

info@marymartin.com

www.marymartin.com

Mann's Annotated Insurance Contracts Act 7th ed / Peter Mann

AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016

9780455237756

$ 179.00

Mann's Annotated Insurance Contracts Act, 7th edition provides the full text of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 accompanied by clear and concise annotations, explaining the operation of the Act. Accompanying the annotated Insurance Contracts Act, the work also contains related legislation and materials.

Celebrating 30 years since the commencement of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 on 1 January 1986, this 7th edition of Mann's Annotated Insurance Contracts Act marks an important milestone in the Act's history. It incorporates all the amendments made to the ICA by the Insurance Contracts Amendment Act 2013 (ICAA 2013) and its significant regime of changes. These changes covered the areas of: utmost good faith, electronic communication, the powers of ASIC, disclosure and misrepresentations, remedies under contracts of life insurance, the rights of third party beneficiaries and subrogation.

Various tranches of the amendments came into effect on four separate dates which included the date of assent, that is, 28 June 2013, 28 December 2013, 28 June 2014 with the final amendments becoming operative on 28 December 2015. The 2013 amendments generally apply to contracts of insurance entered into, or renewed, or varied after the respective commencement date. Mann's Annotated Insurance Contracts Act will assist practitioners, when determining whether the pre amendment "old" section or the post amendment "new" section applies to a particular contract of insurance.

Since the publication of the 6th edition, commentary on sections 13 (utmost good faith), 21 (disclosure) and 54 (remedies) have been revised and over 20 additional cases have been incorporated into the annotations including the High Court decision in Maxwell v Highway Hauliers.

Mann's 7th edition is an essential publication for insurance lawyers, insurance professionals including underwriters, claims managers, insurance brokers, loss adjusters, academics and students as it provides a practical guide to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 with annotations that discuss and analyse the provisions of this Act.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228612>

Criminal Courts and Mental Illness / Brianna Chesser

AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016

9780455238890

$ 99.00

Criminal Courts and Mental Illness: The emergence of specialist problem-solving courts in Australia analyses the nexus between the mental health system and the criminal justice system.

In this ground-breaking research, Dr Chesser seeks to place the development of the mental health court into an overall context within society and frames it as a part of continuing historical change in societal attitudes towards mental illness. This book examines the operation of one such mental health list, the Assessment and Referral Court (ARC) List that operates out of the Magistrates' Court of Victoria. This Court List is the first of its kind in Victoria and was created after national and international models were found to be successful. In the first project of its kind for the ARC list, the author was granted exclusive access to extract court data to determine the effectiveness of the list.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228614>

Migration Law - Annotated Migration Act & Related Legislation / Natasha

Bosnjak, Ben Petrie

AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016

9780455237732

$ 125.00

Migration Law – Annotated Migration Act with Related Legislation is a unique guide for those practising in the area of migration in Australia. Designed for lawyers, migration agents, business professionals and students, this book provides the key legislation governing this dynamic area of practice including the full- text of the Migration Act 1958 together with cogent and clear annotation commentary on that Act. This publication also contains related legislation, including key provisions of the Migration Regulations 1994, and useful tables that provide a quick and easy reference guide to legislative instruments and Ministerial Directions. All legislation has been consolidated, capturing the latest amendments up to 19 April 2016.

The authors, Ben Petrie and Natasha Bosnjak, with their expertise in all aspects of migration law, provide pertinent guidance in their annotations about the practice and procedural aspects in this area of law.

Migration Law – Annotated Migration Act with Related Legislation is an essential reference providing up to date information about the major case law and legislative developments in Australian migration law. The Migration Act 1958 has been subjected to a thorough section-by section analysis to assist the reader in navigating this complex legislative regime,
<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228615>

Evidence Law in Queensland 11th Edition / J R S Forbes
AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016
9780455238289
$ 181.01

Evidence Law in Queensland 11th Edition provides practitioners and students alike with reliable, up-to-date and comprehensive commentary on the Evidence Act 1977 (Qld).

John Forbes has applied his expertise in ten previous editions and once again delivers an authoritative resource for practitioners, law enforcement professionals and students.

The 11th Edition incorporates fresh analysis of legislative and case law developments, including:
Amendment to the Evidence Act by the Criminal Law (Domestic Violence) Amendment Act 2015, expanding the class of ‘special witnesses’ to include alleged victims of domestic violence;
The addition of more than 120 cases;

The High Court's statement in Fitzgerald v The Queen (2015) that the possibility of 'secondary transfer' of DNA may raise a reasonable doubt;
Court of Appeal's ruling in R v Cowan (2015) that a confession secured by an undercover police officer who was not perceived as a "person in authority" may be received in evidence;
Ruling in R v Reed (2014) that 'relationship' evidence, as circumstantial evidence, does not itself have to be proved beyond reasonable doubt;
Decision in R v N (2015) that results of searches and seizures made without a warrant are not immune from exclusion per the Bunning v Cross doctrine;
Requirement in Downes v Maxwell Richard Rhys & Co Pty Ltd (in liq) (2014) that an explanation of the difference between submissions and evidence be provided to unrepresented parties; and Ruling in R v SCJ; Ex parte Attorney-General (Qld) (2015) that a statement by a child witness not competent to give evidence may be admissible under section 93B.

Evidence Law in Queensland 11th Edition renews this title's well-earned reputation for providing essential guidance to the law and practice of evidence in Queensland.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228617>

Law of Investments and Financial Markets 2nd ed / Melissa Naylor
AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016
9780455237572
$ 105.00

Law of Investments and Financial Markets examines the various areas of law that impact on investors and those working in industries associated with investment products. It covers Chapter 7 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the requirements associated with licensing including the legal obligations and compliance requirements of licensees and their representatives, disclosure, dispute resolution and investor protection. This edition includes discussion of the latest amendments and reform process, as well as relevant regulatory guides and recent case law.

Various forms of investment are considered, including financial services and products, managed investments, real property and direct investments into companies. The main sources of law relating to these areas of study include:

legislation such as the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth); the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 (Cth); the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth); the common law, including fiduciary duties as well as contract law and the tort of negligence; and administrative actions, by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) and the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) through regulatory guides and rulings.

This book provides most of the guidance that a serious investor may need on how the current law impacts on their particular investments. It is also designed to assist investment advisers to quickly and accurately find the appropriate law that relates to their requirements. Tertiary students of financial planning and finance law, as well as financial planners, accountants and lawyers practising in investment law will also find the book useful.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228619>

Australian Property Law: Cases and Materials 5th ed / Anthony Moore, Scott Grattan, Lynden Griggs
AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016
9780455237886
$ 165.00

Australian Property Law: Cases and Materials, 5th Edition remains a comprehensive collection of statutes, cases and reference material on Australian real and personal property with notes and questions to provoke fuller understanding and matters for reconsideration.

The work is again divided into five parts covering the meaning of property law, title, dealings in land and goods, interaction of property co-holders and neighbourhood reconciliation.

This casebook is designed as an independent work but may be used as a complementary volume to the sixth edition of Australian Real Property Law which is also divided into the same five parts and is an exposition of much of the law represented by the materials in this work.

Australian material is emphasised in this book, including the place of all interests under the Torrens system, analysis of detailed statutory provisions and consideration of the legal response to the issues of an urbanised multi-cultural society where land is very expensive.

The material offers flexibility for course design to concentrate on land title, dealings and interests or to contrast rights in land, goods and other personal property or to adopt a social emphasis such as the provision of housing through strata and community title, tenancies and other forms of rights to accommodation.

This fifth edition extends the examination of personal property to priority between holders of personal property security interests under a new statutory regime, passing of property under a contract for the sale of goods, co-ownership of goods and bailments.

New developments highlighted include the impact of indefeasibility upon subsidiary interests in a transaction, duties on buyers and mortgagees to discover identity fraud, native title and commercial interests, the property effects of land contracts, means of terminating co-ownership, continuation of tenancies after domestic violence and long-term occupation in caravan parks.
<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228621>

Uniform Evidence Law 12th Edition / Stephen Odgers SC
AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016
9780455237701
$ 165.00

Update: the 12th Edition includes the High Court's April 2016 decision in IMM v The Queen (2016) regarding the probative value of complaint evidence and tendency evidence.

Uniform Evidence Law 12th Edition provides Australia's leading guidance on the uniform evidence law for barristers, courts, litigators and students alike. Up to a quarter of the legislative provisions are reviewed in the courts annually, which makes it essential to have a current copy at hand.

Case law and legislative developments are thoroughly considered. High Court judgments referred to include:
IMM v The Queen (2016) regarding the meaning of the term 'probative value';
R v GW (2016) regarding 'unsworn evidence' (particularly given by children).
Police v Dunstall (2015) regarding the common law 'unfairness discretion';

Honeysett v The Queen (2014) regarding expert opinion evidence;

Important statutory amendments, requiring extensive re-writing of the commentary on a number of the sections, include the Jury Directions Act 2015 (Vic) dealing with jury warnings in criminal proceedings.

New features in the commentary include:

detailed consideration of the question whether affidavit evidence (or other written statement) is subject to the provisions in Part 2.1;

the Introduction includes new sections on the application of the uniform evidence law in joint trials and in circumstances where no objection is taken by a party; detailed discussion of new developments in the area of tendency and coincidence evidence; and the inclusion of useful flow charts prepared by the Judicial College of Victoria, which simplify essential concepts including hearsay, opinion evidence, tendency evidence, coincidence evidence, credibility evidence, identification evidence and privilege.

The 12th edition provides more accessible content, to a wider range of practitioners. The legislative provisions of N.S.W., the Commonwealth, Victoria, Tasmania, the A.C.T. and Northern Territory are reproduced in full and the commentary is expanded to include both the A.C.T. and the Northern Territory.

With its popular and highly accessible annotated legislation format, and comprehensive commentary on the ALRC foundations of the law, Uniform Evidence Law 12th Edition is the authoritative resource on evidence law in N.S.W., the Commonwealth, Victoria, Tasmania, the A.C.T. and Northern Territory.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228625>

Torts: Commentary and Materials 12ed / Carolyn Sappideen, Prue Vines, Penelope Watson

AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016

9780455237848

$ 155.00

Torts: Commentary and Materials 12th edition is one of the leading torts casebooks in Australia. This book provides expert commentary on carefully selected cases and materials from each core area of tort law. Considerable emphasis is placed on the choice of foundational cases as well as on the use of topical examples and questions. Torts: Commentary and Materials includes contemporary and illustrative examples of tort law and contains questions designed to provoke critical analysis while fully engaging the reader.

The 12th edition has been substantially rewritten and reworked to streamline and structure its content to reflect how torts is taught in the majority of Australian universities, in particular the increased emphasis on statute in the modern law of torts. The aim of this book is to place torts within its social and legal structure; including consideration of the role of torts in the protection of rights in the absence of a Bill of Rights.

Of particular note in the 12th edition:

An emphasis on the new common law created by the merging of case law and statute as the Civil Liability Acts become entrenched.

The introductory context chapter has been further developed to extend and make accessible the theoretical basis of liability in torts.

The coverage of nuisance has been substantially revised and restructured.

The chapters on duty of care have been further revised to lead the student through this difficult and intricate area of negligence, making the work more accessible to students without sacrificing the detail of this important area of law.

The authors of the new edition are highly regarded scholars of tort law. They bring to the text passion and wisdom from many years of learning and teaching Australian tort law.

Torts: Commentary and Materials, 12th edition, is the ideal work to provide students and professionals with a solid and broad understanding of this dynamic area of law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228627>

Macken's Law of Employment 8e / Carolyn Sappideen, Paul O'Grady, Joellen Riley

AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016

9780455237824

$ 145.00

For over 30 years, students, academics and professionals have relied on Macken's Law of Employment as Australia's most respected work in employment law. This 8th edition continues in that tradition. Authored by a distinguished team of experts, the scholarly commentary provides reliable guidance on all aspects of employment law. In recognition of the extensive influence of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) on the rights and responsibilities of employers and employees, this edition organises chapters into two parts – the first dealing principally with a thorough analysis of common law principles applying to the employer-employee relationship, and the second with the statutory provisions governing employment, although always with careful attention to the intersections and overlaps between common law and statute.

Major developments incorporated into the 8th edition include:

Comprehensive revisions to include all statutory and case law developments affecting the law governing employment relationships.

Revisions acknowledging the significant impact of the High Court decision in Commonwealth Bank of Australia v Barker on the common law of employment contracts in Australia.

A new chapter dedicated specifically to work health and safety.

Expansion of the analysis of statutory remedies for unfair dismissal and breaches of the Fair Work General Protections.

Inclusion of more detailed information on terms and conditions of employment set by modern awards and enterprise agreements, and the interplay of legislative instruments with contract terms.

A new section on taking protected industrial action under the Fair Work Act, in the chapter which continues to provide the most extensive commentary on industrial torts.

A revised chapter on discrimination law as it affects employment.

The objective of this book, and undeniably its greatest strength, is to provide expert and up-to-date commentary on this continually evolving area of law. It is an essential tool for those studying or working in employment law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228629>

The Australian Consumer Law 3rd ed / Stephen Corones

AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016

9780455237442

$ 143.00

Stephen Corones in The Australian Consumer Law, explains in a detailed yet accessible treatment the substantive rights and remedies of consumers, and the obligations of traders under the Australian Consumer Law (ACL).

The ACL commenced on 1 January 2011 and it has been a far reaching national reform. As a result of the ACL there is now one uniform consumer protection law that applies in all jurisdictions throughout Australia and across all sectors of the economy. This book explains the scope and importance of the statutory causes of action created by the ACL. It examines how the general and specific protections inter-relate, the scope for overlap, and why each provision is necessary to provide complete consumer protection.

Since the last edition over three years ago, The Australian Consumer Law third edition has been extensively reworked and updated to take account of the many changes in the law that have occurred during this time. The third edition includes commentary on new legislation, including the Treasury Legislation Amendment (Small Business and Unfair Contract Terms) Act 2015 (Cth) which will extend the general protection against unfair terms to contracts with small businesses. It also considers important appellate decisions, those of the High Court of Australia, in Google v ACCC, Forrest v ASIC, ACCC v TPG, Kakavas v Crown Melbourne, and Commonwealth v Director, Fair Work Building Industry Inspectorate; and appellate decisions of the Full Federal Court in ACCC v Lux Distributors, and Paciocco v Australia and New Zealand Banking Group, together with those of the leading State and Territory courts.

The Australian Consumer Law remains the key text on consumer law in Australia, suitable for students and practitioners alike.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228632>

Principles of Dispute Resolution 2e / David Spencer

AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016

9780455237985

$ 76.00

Principles of Dispute Resolution 2nd edition explains the theory, philosophy and practice of dispute resolution in Australia.

Professor David Spencer is a leading writer in Australia on the development of the law of dispute resolution in Australia. Utilising a practical outlook, he examines the basic methods of dispute resolution in this book.

Principles of Dispute Resolution 2nd edition has been revised to provide up-to-date commentary on the development of the law. In particular, the text focuses on the new and amended legislation in both State and federal jurisdictions, along with the developing case law on dispute resolution.

Topics covered by this work include:

What is dispute resolution?

Negotiation

Mediation

Arbitration

Additional dispute resolution processes such as: conciliation; partnering; dispute review advisers and boards; and adjudication, appraisals and determinations

Jurisdictional hybrids of dispute resolution such as: collaborative law; restorative justice; combined processes; and online dispute resolution

Statutory dispute resolution schemes

Legal issues such as: confidentiality; privilege; immunity; enforceability of settlement agreements; and enforceability of dispute resolution clauses in contracts

Ethics and standards

The future of dispute resolution

Written simply and succinctly, this text is a valuable guide to help students and practitioners alike understand the fundamentals of dispute resolution.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228633>

Business and the Law 6th edition / Andrew Terry, Des Giugni

AUSTRALIA: Lawbook Co., 2016

9780455236582

$ 130.00

The law regulating commercial conduct and commercial relationships is increasingly complex and important. The sixth edition of Business and the Law has been written to offer business law students a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the Australian legal system and to the major areas of law impacting on business today. It is also a valuable resource for any business professional or small business requiring an intelligent introduction to contemporary business law in Australia.

This new edition of this established and respected text has been substantially restructured and revised to incorporate significant legislative and common law developments. It includes a new chapter addressing contracts in business, which builds on the foundational contracts chapter. Recent developments relating to the Australian Consumer Law are discussed, including the extension of the consumer unfair contract terms law to small business, as are the recommendations of the Harper Competition Policy Review.

Business and the Law is academically rigorous but also accessible. It includes concise case examples as well as more comprehensive case studies of leading decisions to demonstrate how relevant laws are applied. Media items are liberally used to illustrate the relevance and application of business law to contemporary business.

Business and the Law, 6th Edition addresses the legal environment for business; the structures, transactions and relationships through which business is conducted; and the regulation of business in Australia. It addresses issues of real significance to each of Australia's two million businesses – not only the very small percentage of large firms, but the medium, small and micro enterprises which comprise the vast majority. This book is a sensible investment for each of these businesses, as well as being a highly useful student text.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228634>

Quick Reference Card – Work Health and Safety / Harpur, P
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344660
$ 21.00

This Quick Reference card offers a concise summary of the laws of work health and safety in Australia, including reference to the most important principles and legislation

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228635>

Quick Reference Card – Corporate Social Responsibility / Hayes, C
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344813
$ 21.00

Quick Reference Card – Corporate Social Responsibility, written by lecturer Dr Colleen Hayes, provides an easy-to-follow and practical guide to the important principles of corporate social responsibility. This Quick Reference Card makes an ideal study aid for both classroom and exam use, and is an excellent quick-reference tool for both law and business students, as well as corporate professionals. This card provides an introduction to corporate social responsibility, and covers related topics including sustainability, ethics, corporate reporting regimes, and also includes a comparative look at the CSR models in the UK and USA.

Features

- Concise summary of the main principles of corporate social responsibility
- Overview of important legislation
- Bold headings and colour coded boxes structure the subject

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228636>

Curtin Law and Taxation Review, Volume II, 2015 / Edelman, J; Pinto, D
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344127
$ 120.00

The Review's scholarly works are directed to academic staff, legal scholars, practitioners, justice professionals and postgraduate researchers who have to deal with different aspects of the law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228637>

Corporations Law: A Custom Publication for Melbourne Law School / Ali, P; Langford, R T; Ramsay, I
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409345513
$ 165.00

Reproduced in this text are readings selected by Paul Ali, Rosemary Teele Langford and Ian Ramsay for the Corporations Law unit at Melbourne Law School, University of Melbourne. The readings are comprised of chapters and extracts from the following LexisNexis Butterworths publications:

- Austin & Ramsay, Ford, Austin & Ramsay's Principles of Corporations Law, 16th edition, 2014

- Gooley, Zammit, Dicker & Russell, Corporations and Associations Law: Principles and Issues, 6th edition, 2015
- Harris, Company Law: Theories, Principles and Applications, 2nd edition, 2015
- Harris, Hargovan & Adams, Australian Corporate Law, 5th edition, 2016

Table of Contents

Topic 1 – Introduction to Companies and the Regulatory Scheme

Topic 2 – Incorporations and Its Effects

Topic 3 – Managing Companies

Topic 4 – Duties and Liabilities of Directors and Officers: Framework of Duties, Duty to Act in Good Faith and Duty to Act for a Proper Purpose

Topic 5 – Duties and Liabilities of Directors and Officers: Duty of Care

Topic 6 – Duties and Liabilities of Directors and Officers: Loyalty

Topic 7 – Shareholder Actions

Topic 8 – Corporate Liability

Topic 9 – Share Capital

Topic 10 – Introduction to Corporate Insolvency

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228638>

Quick Reference Card Tax II, 2016 / Kenny, P

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344721

$ 20.00

Quick Reference Card Tax II, written by Associate Professor and Associate Dean Academic at Flinders University, Dr Paul Kenny, clearly summarises Australian tax by using the most important principles, legislation and cases. This Quick Reference Card makes an ideal study aid both for classroom and exam use and is an excellent quick-reference tool for legal and tax students as well as professionals. This card covers income tax, tax accounting, capital allowances, entities, trusts, companies and anti-avoidance.

Features

- Concise summary of the most important principles of Australian tax
- Overview of important legislation and cases
- Bold headings and colour coded boxes structure the subject

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228639>

Quick Reference Card Tax I, 2016 / Kenny, P

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344714

$ 20.00

Quick Reference Card Tax I, written by Associate Professor and Associate Dean Academic at Flinders University, Dr Paul Kenny, clearly summaries Australian tax by using the most important principles, legislation and cases. This Quick Reference Card makes an ideal study aid both for classroom and exam use and is an excellent quick-reference tool for legal and tax students as well as professionals. This card covers income tax, international tax, statutory income, non-assessable income, capital gains tax, general and specific deductions, deduction limitations, special taxpayers, fringe benefits tax and GST.

Features

- Concise summary of the most important principles of Australian tax
- Overview of important legislation and cases
- Bold headings and colour coded boxes structure the subject

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228640>

International Trade and Business Law Review, Volume XIX, 2016 / Moens, G A

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344134

$ 120.00

The International Trade and Business Law Review provides the legal and business communities with information, knowledge and understanding of recent developments in international trade, business and international commercial arbitration.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228641>

Quick Reference Card: Trusts, April 2016 / Robinson, L
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343939
$ 18.00

Quick Reference Card: Trusts clearly summarises the key principles, case law and legislation relating to Trusts in Australia. This Quick Reference Card makes an ideal study aid both for classroom and exam use and is an excellent quick-reference tool for students and practitioners. This card covers:

Format: A4, 4-page, laminated card

Features

- Concise summary of the most important principles of trusts
- Overview of the important cases and legislation
- Bold headings and colour coded boxes provide easy to navigate structure

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228642>

The College of Law WA Practice Papers Set Volume 1, 2 & 3, 2016 —2017
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780001080928 set
Volume 1 - 9780409344370
Volume 2 - 9780409344387
Volume 3 – 9780409344394
$ 364.50 set

This annual collection of Practice Papers supports The College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Western Australia and is designed to provide useful practical guides for lawyers in their early years of practice or those wishing to become familiar with a new area of practice.

The Practice Papers are written and maintained by The College of Law's academic staff and other subject area experts. In Australia the collection in each state is the fundamental resource for law graduates undertaking The College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program.

The Practice Papers focus on the knowledge and skills that are essential to contemporary legal practice and cover the following core areas:

- civil litigation;
- accounting;
- commercial and corporate;
- property law;
- administrative law;
- criminal law;
- family law;
- employment and industrial relations; and
- wills and estates.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228644>

LexisNexis Case Summaries - Constitutional Law, 6th edition / Price, D C
 Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
 9780409341898
 $ 29.00

This popular text highlights the facts, issue and decision in each case so that the principles can be readily understood and memorised. The cases have been selected to align with current teaching in Constitutional Law. An excellent study and revision resource for students, LexisNexis Case Summaries - Constitutional Law is a great quick reference for anyone wanting to understand the case law in this area.

Features

Structure of the case summaries - catch words, facts, issue and decision - reflects modern case analysis

- All key cases in the subject area in one easy-to-find collection Assists the reader with understanding the principles of each case
- Enables easy reference to appropriate cases when answering problem questions

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228645>

Australian Immigration Companion, 6th edition / Gerkens, M; Fernandez, R;
 Yau, D; Ozyurek, S; Kenny, J
 Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
 9780409344578
 $ 89.00

This text book has been developed to assist migration practitioners — students, academics, lawyers, migration agents, staff of the Department of Immigration and Border Protection, parliamentarians' staff, or anyone with an interest in migration law — to understand Australian migration law in a practical and real-life context. The book will be an invaluable companion for students studying the entry-level course (Graduate Certificate in Australian Migration Law and Practice) prescribed by the Minister for Immigration and Border Protection. Practising migration agents, and newly registered lawyers, will also find it a useful aid in their work and professional development. Immigration officers in Australia and overseas might also use this book for training purposes, information exchange and discussion.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228646>

Australian Corporations Legislation Student Edition 2017

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344202

$ 79.00

The LexisNexis Legislation Series, Australian Corporations Legislation Student Edition 2017, is an invaluable resource for students studying corporations law. It consolidates key corporations legislation in Australia in one concise volume, making for an easy to use reference for students. This student edition incorporates shaded tabs for enhanced navigability as well as an extensive index.

Table of Contents

- Corporations Act 2001
- Corporations Regulations 2001
- Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001
- Australian Securities and Investments Commission Regulations 2001
- Acts Interpretation Act 1901
- Corporations (Fees) Act 2001
- Corporations (Fees) Regulations 2001
- Corporations (Review Fees) Act 2003
- Corporations (Review Fees) Regulations 2003

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228647>

Contract Law – Text and Cases, 2nd edition / Thampapillai, D; Bozzi, C; Bruce, A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409342611

$ 120.00

Contract Law — Text and Cases combines comprehensive academic commentary with extracts from key cases. It aims to give students the essential knowledge and skills in contract law to succeed in a law degree and in professional practice.

This book has been specifically designed to blend the traditional textbook and casebook models in a single book. The text is supplemented with review questions, problem-solving practice, and key points for revision.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228648>

Quick Reference Card – Anti-Discrimination Law in the Workplace / Harpur, P
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344820

$ 21.00

Quick Reference Card – Anti-Discrimination Law in the Workplace, written by senior lecturer Dr Paul Harpur, provides an easy-to-follow and practical guide to the most important principles of Australian anti-discrimination law in the workplace. This Quick Reference Card makes an ideal study aid for both classroom and exam use, and is an excellent quick-reference tool for both law and business students, as well as professionals working in the field. This card provides an introduction to workplace discrimination and rights, covers the human rights jurisdiction as well as the industrial relations jurisdiction, and discusses the enforcement of relevant anti-discrimination laws.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228804>

Annotated Fair Work Act and Related Legislation 2016 edition / Catanzariti, J;
Byrnes, M; Young, E; Latham, I; Fagir, O; Turnbull, J

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409343588

$ 120.00

The new edition of LNAA: Annotated Fair Work Act and Related Legislation provides a single reference encompassing the key pieces of Fair Work legislation with annotations. This comprehensive work includes recent legislative changes together with case law developments featured in the annotations. This title provides a section-based structure enabling simple and quick accessibility to the Fair Work Act, Regulations and related legislation.

The material in the 2016 edition of LNAA: Annotated Fair Work Act and Related Legislation is extracted from the looseleaf service Workplace Law — Fair Work, LexisNexis.

The legislation in the 2016 edition is current to 1 May 2016.
<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228649>

LexisNexis Case Summaries: Torts, 8th edition / Holmes, D
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409341874
$ 40.00

LexisNexis Case Summaries: Torts provides a concise summary of the key cases in Australian torts law

This popular text highlights the facts, issues and decision in leading torts law cases so that the principles can be readily understood and memorised.

The cases have been selected to align with current torts teaching in all Australian jurisdictions.

An excellent study and revision resource for students, this book is a great quick reference for anyone wanting to understand the case law in this area.
<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228650>

LexisNexis Questions & Answers - Criminal Procedure / Hemming, A; Braun, K
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409341447
$ 62.00

This book, part of the successful LexisNexis Questions and Answer series, deals with criminal procedure. .

The primary purpose of this book is to provide students with an understanding of criminal procedure and to develop their problem-solving skills. Each chapter commences with a summary of relevant law and key issues. Each question is followed by an answer plan, a suggested answer, examiner's comments and a section on common errors to avoid. The authors also give practical tips on examination technique.

Due to the nature of the subject, questions include essay-based and short answer questions.

Questions cover a comprehensive range of topics including arrest, detention and search after arrest, bail, obtaining evidence and forensic procedures, the right to silence and police interrogation, entry onto and search of premises, sentencing and pleas in mitigation, and the appeal process.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228651>

Introduction to Australian Public Law, 5th edition / Clark, D
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409342598
$ 115.00

Introduction to Australian Public Law provides an account of contemporary Australian Public Law for students in Australian Law Schools. The book covers current issues such as the recognition of Indigenous Australians as well as key concepts that apply to both the Commonwealth and State jurisdictions such as the rule of law and the separation of powers.

Areas of law covered include the role of public international law in Australian public law, Election law, the Ombudsman office, human rights as well as state legislative power and executive power. Each chapter has suggested study questions and a select list of further reading.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228652>

LexisNexis Questions and Answers - Civil Procedure / Zillmann, H; Hemming, A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409342574
$ 62.00

LexisNexis Questions and Answers — Civil Procedure is designed to facilitate both continuous review and preparation for examinations. This book provides an understanding of civil procedure and gives a clear and systematic approach to analysing and answering problem and exam questions. Each chapter commences with a summary of the relevant law and key issues. Each question is followed by a suggested answer plan, a sample answer and comments on how the answer might be assessed by an examiner. The authors also offer advice on common errors to avoid when answering each question. LexisNexis Questions and Answers — Civil Procedure covers:

- Summary of key issues in each chapter.
- Questions with answer guide, suggested answer, examiner's comments and common errors to avoid.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228653>

LexisNexis Study Guide - Civil Procedure / Colbran, S; Douglas, R; Jackson, S; O'Brien, MT

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409342550

$ 52.00

The LexisNexis Study Guide series is designed to assist students in learning the foundations for effective, systematic exam preparation and revision. In each chapter of LexisNexis Study Guide - Civil Procedure, Stephen Colbran, Roger Douglas, Sheryl Jackson and Molly Townes O'Brien clearly identify and explain the pertinent and often difficult topics within civil procedure. The most important and recent cases are summarised to consolidate practical understanding of the theoretical concepts involved in civil procedure.

In each chapter of LexisNexis Study Guide - Civil Procedure, Stephen Colbran, Roger Douglas, Sheryl Jackson and Molly Townes O'Brien clearly identify and explain the pertinent and often difficult topics within civil procedure. The most important and recent cases are summarised to consolidate practical understanding of the theoretical concepts involved in civil procedure.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228654>

Family Law in Australia, 9th edition / Young, L; Sifris, A; Carroll, R; Monahan, G
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409341362

$ 159.00

Family Law in Australia provides a comprehensive, detailed and accessible analysis of key family law issues and their positioning in the Australian society. The underlying principles of family law as expressed in the present law are placed in their historical, social and legal context. The authors critically evaluate patterns of past and future reforms, making this text invaluable for scholarly and vocational study in law and as an authoritative text for practitioner use.

The ninth edition of Family Law in Australia has been fully revised and updated by a team of authors highly experienced in family law. Developments include:

- major revision of chapters on property settlement, including developments arising out of Stanford (ZCA), Bevan & Bevan, Hoffman & Hoffman and Fields & Smith (FamCAFC), the changes in the area of 'big money' cases and the future of add-backs
 - complex recent litigation on financial agreements, third parties and de facto relationships
 - the impact of the 2012 amendments to Pt VII of the Family Law Act (relating to Children and Parenting)
 - legislative developments and solutions on parentage and related issues, particularly surrogacy arrangements and assisted conception
 - discussion of developments in relation to special medical procedures: Re Jamie (FamCAFC) (childhood gender identity disorder and the role of the court)
 - increased focus on family dispute resolution methods, including the relevance of family law arbitration
 - extended discussion of social policy throughout.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228655>

Criminal Law in Queensland and Western Australia 9th edition / Devereux, J; Blake, M
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409339796
$ 115.00

An indispensable tool for students, teachers and practitioners, the text provides a comprehensive and current guide to the fundamentals of the criminal law in Queensland and Western Australia, much of which has direct application in other Code jurisdictions, such as Tasmania.

Following the tradition established by Graham Kenny and Jim Herlihy in 1978, John Devereux and Meredith Blake present a text of an introductory nature suitable for students, teachers and practitioners.

The ninth edition incorporates all recent amendments to the Criminal Codes and to other statutes relating to criminal law in both Queensland and Western Australia, as well as the most recent case law.

Ideal for students approaching the subject for the first time.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228656>

LexisNexis Questions and Answers Business Law, 2nd edition / Ardagh, A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409342970

$ 62.00

LexisNexis Questions and Answers - Business Law by Anne Ardagh contains questions and problems on a number of topics commonly taught in business or commercial law. Areas covered include introduction to law, law-making, the common law and the doctrine of judicial precedent, the court system, settlement of disputes, and contract law (from formation through to discharge and remedies for breach). Additional topics are agent and principal, business organisations and business fiduciary relationships, insolvency, the law of torts and negotiable instruments. The text is designed to help students grasp the techniques for analysing and writing assignment questions and problems that are frequently used in tutorials, course assessment and examinations.

Each chapter provides an overview of key issues, followed by a variety of questions and problems that assist students to apply their knowledge, revise important areas and identify weaknesses in understanding. Suggested answer plans and comments from an examiner are given.

Overall, the book gives students the ability to master business law concepts and overcome common difficulties in answering problems and preparing for exams. LexisNexis Questions and Answers - Business Law also provides teachers of business law with many practice questions for their students.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228658>

Corporations Law, 5th edition / Anderson, C; Dickfos, J; Hyland, M; Nehme, M; Dahdal, A

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409343298

$ 119.00

Corporations Law, 5th Edition by Colin Anderson, Jennifer Dickfos, Margaret Hyland, Marina Nehme and Andrew Dahdal is an accessible text covering the full range of topics taught in a corporations law course. It adopts a structure which helps students develop a greater understanding of the core subject. Key areas of study are identified and complex legal concepts are demystified.

This new edition continues to adopt a straightforward style with a particular emphasis on problem solving, allowing students to develop their critical thinking skills and practise responding to legal problem questions.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228660>

Equity and Trusts, 4th edition / Evans, M; Jones, B L; Power, T M
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409338331
$ 137.00

Equity and Trusts provides a thorough but accessible statement and analysis of the principles of equity, the law of trusts and equitable remedies. An understanding of fundamental principles is fostered through engaging discussion of case law, with boxed case summaries to assist in identifying key cases.

The fourth edition has been fully revised and consolidated to include recent developments in case law and legislation, including discussion on:

- charitable trusts in the light of the Charities Act 2013 (Cth)
- Andrews v ANZ Banking Group Ltd (HCA - 2012) and Paciocco v ANZ Banking Group Ltd (FCA – 2015) on the law of penalties
- HIH Claims Support Ltd v Insurance Aust Ltd (HCA - 2011) and Lavin v Toppi (HCA - 2015) on the law of contribution, particularly co-ordinate liability
- Re Dion Investments (NSWCA - 2014) on limits on court power to authorise amendments of trust deeds
- Federal Republic of Brazil v Durant International Corp (UKPC - 2015) on doctrine of tracing
- Australian Financial Services & Leasing Pty Ltd v Hills Industries Ltd (HCA - 2014) on defence of change of position to claim for restitution of moneys paid under mistake
- Sidhu v Van Dyke (HCA - 2014) on proprietary estoppel
- Bofinger v Kingsway Group Ltd (HCA - 2009) on the doctrines of subrogation and unjust enrichment in Australia

The clear explanations of the meaning and practical application of the principles of equity and trusts in Australian law make the book ideal for students and an authoritative and reliable reference for practitioners.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228661>

LexisNexis Study Guide: Trusts, 3rd edition / Barkehall Thomas, S J; Vann V J
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409341997
$ 54.00

The LexisNexis Study Guide series is designed to assist law students with the foundations for effective, systematic exam preparation and revision. Each chapter clearly identifies and explains the pertinent topics within specific areas of law. Concise summaries of key cases and principles simplify exam study and short and concise paragraphs, bullet-pointed summaries, flowcharts and tables facilitate revision. Open-book exams are made easier with this compact and portable text.

The third edition of LexisNexis Study Guide: Trusts has been revised and updated throughout and includes expanded discussion on:

- sham trusts
- intention to create a trust
- trustees' duty to account to beneficiaries
- variation of trusts
- charitable purposes trusts after the Charities Act 2013 (Cth)
- trustees' right of indemnification.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228662>

Social Media and the Law, 2nd edition / George, P; Allen, M; Basha, G; Benson, S; Collins, J; Mattson, J; Munsie, J; Rubagotti, G; Stuart, G; Whiley, J
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343380
$ 130.00

Now in its second edition, Social Media and the Law examines how the rapid rise of social media use in Australia continues to pose unique challenges to established legal conventions across a number of different sectors of law.

Through the prism of sectors ranging from employment, copyright and defamation to the ACCC, privacy and the criminal justice system, this book examines the issues arising from the interactions between social media and the law and offers guidance to practitioners and students alike.

New to this second edition is a chapter on dealing with social media assets and accounts in an individual's estate plan and the questions that should be considered.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228663>

Corporations Law: A Custom Publication for Melbourne Law School and Australian Corporations Legislation 2016 (Bundle) / Ali, P; Langford, R T; Ramsay, I

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780001106239

$ 219.60

Corporations Law: A Custom Publication for Melbourne Law School

Reproduced in this text are readings selected by Paul Ali, Rosemary Teele Langford and Ian Ramsay for the Corporations Law unit at Melbourne Law School, University of Melbourne. The readings are comprised of chapters and extracts from the following LexisNexis Butterworths publications:

Australian Corporations Legislation 2016 Student Edition

The LexisNexis Legislation Series Australian Corporations Legislation 2016 Student Edition is the essential exam-friendly student edition. It provides a comprehensive single-volume collection of key corporations and related legislation. The material in this edition includes the latest legislative amendments and is current as at 1 October 2015. This special student edition incorporates shaded tabs for enhanced ease-of-use and navigability as well as an extensive index.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228664>

The College of Law QLD Practice Papers Set Volume 1, 2 & 3, 2016 – 2017

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780001080522 set

Volume 3 - 9780409344271

Volume 2 - 9780409344264

Volume 1 – 9780409344257

$ 364.50

This annual collection of Practice Papers supports The College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Queensland and is designed to provide useful practical guides for lawyers in their early years of practice or those wishing to become familiar with a new area of practice.

The Practice Papers in this volume are part of the complete set of papers for the College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Queensland. Each of the three volumes are available individually or can be purchased as a set.

The professional responsibility and accounting papers deal with the ethical standards, legislation, regulations and the written and unwritten rules, that govern the practice of law.

A number of other papers cover the skills essential to legal practice such as interviewing, advocacy, negotiation, drafting and work management.

The remaining papers are guides for lawyers working in the core practice areas of:

- civil litigation;
- commercial and corporate;
- property;
- administrative law;
- criminal law;
- family law;
- employment and industrial relations;
- planning and environment

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228665>

Auditing and Assurance: A Case Studies Approach Revised, 6th edition /

Martinov-Bennie, N; Roebuck, P; Soh, D

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344615

$ 80.00

Auditing and Assurance: A Case Studies Approach provides challenging, practical cases for auditing students at both the undergraduate and postgraduate level.

The revised 6th edition incorporates key revisions to existing and new auditing standards as of December 2015. The most significant changes to auditing standards since the 6th edition was published in 2014 are in the areas of audit reporting and addressing disclosures in the audit of financial statements.

Auditing and Assurance: A Case Studies Approach also offers extensive new online support materials for both students and lecturers, including a comprehensive teaching guide for instructors.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228666>

Mastering Law Study and Law Exam Techniques, 9th edition / Krever, R
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343182
$ 72.00

A practical and engaging guide to successful law study and assessment outcomes

Successfully navigating the particular requirements of law school and legal study can be challenging, even for the most capable of students. Mastering Law Studies and Law Exam Techniques de-mystifies the process of studying law and provides the foundations for law school success.

The first part of the book provides basic rules and helpful hints on study techniques. The second part shows how to apply these guidelines by presenting a range of sample exam questions and answers contributed by experienced law lecturers from leading Australasian universities. This section includes commentary from examiners about what separates an above average answer from an average answer.

Guides to success in moot court and on how to approach multiple choice and essay assessments are also included.

The ninth edition of this successful book has been updated to reflect recent developments in case law and legislation.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228668>

The College of Law VIC Practice Papers Volume 3, 2016 – 2017
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344332
$ 135.00

This annual collection of Practice Papers supports The College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Victoria and is designed to provide useful practical guides for lawyers in their early years of practice or those wishing to become familiar with a new area of practice.

The Practice Papers in this volume are part of the complete set of papers for the College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Victoria. Each of the three volumes are available individually or can be purchased as a set.

The professional responsibility and accounting papers deal with the ethical standards, legislation, regulations and the written and unwritten rules, that govern the practice of law.

A number of other papers cover the skills essential to legal practice such as interviewing, advocacy, negotiation, drafting and work management.

The remaining papers are guides for lawyers working in the core practice areas of:

- civil litigation;
- commercial and corporate;
- property;
- administrative law;
- criminal law;
- employment and industrial relations;
- employment and industrial relations;
- planning and environment law; and
- wills and estates

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228670>

The College of Law VIC Practice Papers Volume 1, 2016 – 2017
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344318
$ 135.00

This annual collection of Practice Papers supports The College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Victoria and is designed to provide useful practical guides for lawyers in their early years of practice or those wishing to become familiar with a new area of practice.

The Practice Papers in this volume are part of the complete set of papers for the College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Victoria. Each of the three volumes are available individually or can be purchased as a set.

The professional responsibility and accounting papers deal with the ethical standards, legislation, regulations and the written and unwritten rules, that govern the practice of law.

A number of other papers cover the skills essential to legal practice such as interviewing, advocacy, negotiation, drafting and work management.

The remaining papers are guides for lawyers working in the core practice areas of:

- civil litigation;
- commercial and corporate;
- property;
- administrative law;
- criminal law;
- employment and industrial relations;
- employment and industrial relations;
- planning and environment law; and
- wills and estates

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228671>

Mason & Carter's Restitution Law in Australia, 3rd edition / Mason, K; Carter, J W; Tolhurst, G J

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409341621

$ 240.00

Restitution is one of the law's few remaining commons, largely untouched by statute.

Fifty years ago restitution was a wilderness, an apparent 'miscellany of disparate categories' through which litigant, judge and student trudged holding a compass marked 'implied contract' at its four points. The landscape of the modern Australian law of restitution, however, is complex. The topic of restitution addressed by the authors includes doctrines responding to different and/or additional policies as well as gain-based remedies appurtenant to wrongs with their juridical source outside unjust enrichment, which is only one of the bases for restitution.

In this third edition, the content has been revised and updated. Chapter 3 (Want of Title) has been substantially updated and Chapter 24 (Change of Position) has been completely rewritten.

This book is essential reading for members of the judiciary, barristers and solicitors Australia wide, as well as students of commercial law, equity and remedies.

Comments from reviewers :

'An excellent, accessible account of the modern law of restitution in Australia which will prove to be of enormous benefit to practitioners in Australia and which can be read with profit by all lawyers with an interest in this fascinating subject' [(1996) 112 Law Quarterly Review 691].

'A detailed masterly exposition, with meticulous cross-referencing' ([1996] Restitution Law Review 147).

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228672>

The College of Law VIC Practice Papers Volume 2, 2016 – 2017

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344325

$ 135.00

This annual collection of Practice Papers supports The College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Victoria and is designed to provide useful practical guides for lawyers in their early years of practice or those wishing to become familiar with a new area of practice.

The Practice Papers in this volume are part of the complete set of papers for the College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Victoria. Each of the three volumes are available individually or can be purchased as a set.

The professional responsibility and accounting papers deal with the ethical standards, legislation, regulations and the written and unwritten rules, that govern the practice of law.

A number of other papers cover the skills essential to legal practice such as interviewing, advocacy, negotiation, drafting and work management.

The remaining papers are guides for lawyers working in the core practice areas of:

- civil litigation;
- commercial and corporate;
- property;
- administrative law;
- criminal law;
- employment and industrial relations;
- employment and industrial relations;
- planning and environment law; and
- wills and estates

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228674>

LUMB, MOENS & TRONE The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia
Annotated, 9th edition / Moens, G ; Trone, J
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409341423
$ 155.00

The work focuses on the most important decisions concerning the Commonwealth Constitution and has been updated to incorporate the most recent case law and statutory amendments. Examples of significant recent cases covered in this edition include:

- Momcilovic v R (2011)
- Betfair Pty Ltd v Racing New South Wales (2012)
- Williams v Commonwealth (No 1) (2012)
- JT International SA v Commonwealth (2012)
- Attorney-General (SA) v Corporation of the City of Adelaide (2013)
- Fortescue Metals Group Ltd v Commonwealth (2013)
- Commonwealth v Australian Capital Territory (2013)

- Unions NSW v New South Wales (2013)
- Williams v Commonwealth (No 2) (2014)
- Kuczborski v Queensland (2014)
- Australian Communications and Media Authority v Today FM (Sydney) Pty Ltd (2015)
- Queensland Nickel Pty Ltd v Commonwealth (2015)
- McCloy v New South Wales (2015)
- Plaintiff M68/2015 v Minister for Immigration and Border Protection (2016)

“... a very useful reference text for students and practitioners at all levels in the field of constitutional law’ — The Hon Chief Justice Robert French, High Court of Australia, 2011

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228675>

Annotated Competition and Consumer Legislation, 2016 edition / Steinwall, R
 Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
 9780409343441
 $ 130.00

The 2016 edition of Annotated Competition and Consumer Legislation provides an essential guide to the Australian competition and consumer law in Australia. The work includes subsection-level annotations to the legislation, detailed amendment histories and comparative tables, and practical guidance as to the impact of recent legislation reforms. This title includes the latest legislative amendments and is current as at 1 January 2016.

The 2016 edition incorporates the following features to assist you in your day-to-day practice:

- Authored annotations by Ray Steinwall explaining the competition and consumer legislation including commentary on key cases from a range of jurisdictions and include High Court, Federal Court, Supreme Court, tribunal decisions and significant unreported judgments
 - Introductions to parts of the Act covering the laws’ development, review and reform proposals including significant commentary on the Australian Consumer Law
 - References to decisions of the National Competition Council and decisions impacting the Australia energy law
 - All forms are reproduced from Schedule 1 of the Competition and Consumer Regulations 2010

- Penalties and Remedies Table providing easy access to understand rights of redress and penalties
- A comparative table of cross-references mapping pre-reform provisions to those in the Competition and Consumer Act
- Shaded legislation and detailed tabs with extensive indexing to enhance the ease of use and navigability.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228677>

The College of Law Practice Papers NSW 2016 - Volume 4

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409342758

$ 135.00

This annual collection of Practice Papers supports The College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in New South Wales and is designed to provide useful practical guides for lawyers in their early years of practice or those wishing to become familiar with a new area of practice.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228679>

Testamentary Trusts : Strategies and Precedents (previously titled Discretionary Trusts, Precedents and Commentary), 2nd edition (Hard cover) / Sundar, V; Rowland, C; Bailey, P

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409342994

$ 189.00

Building on the success of the first edition (previously titled Discretionary Trusts, Precedents and Commentary), this new edition has been expanded to cover all types of testamentary trusts.

The central purpose of this book is to provide a flexible and easy-to-use system for drafting discretionary testamentary trusts. The system is intended to allow practitioners to deal with what has always been a very complicated and difficult problem: modifying a discretionary testamentary trust precedent to accommodate the widely different family circumstances and testamentary wishes which testators present to the drafter. One testator will want a common option: to provide for a spouse; and if the spouse predeceases the testator, the testator's children. If a child predeceases the testator, the children of that child will represent that child and take what the predeceased child would have taken. All beneficiaries are to take their inheritance through a discretionary testamentary trust. However, other testators have different and more challenging requirements.

To this end, Chapter 8 contains the Model Testamentary Trust precedent, as well as a clause-by-clause commentary on it. The precedent forms the foundation of every variation of the discretionary testamentary trust, and it is on this foundation that the variations are built by inserting clauses from Chapter 9. Chapter 10 contains a representative sample of widely different family situations for which a testator may wish to provide, as well as including flexible alternative clauses. In addition to providing a modular drafting precedent, the book also covers strategies dealing with superannuation (Chapter 6), family provision (Chapter 11) and blended families (Chapter 12). <http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228680>

Principles of Australian Equity and Trusts: Cases and Materials, 3rd edition /
Radan, P; Stewart, C; Vickovich, I
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409340419
$ 130.00

In Principles of Australian Equity and Trusts: Cases and Materials the authors draw together the key cases and materials relating to equity and trusts to illustrate the reasoning processes of the court and the development of legal principles. Cases are carefully selected, edited and cross-referenced to the companion textbook, Principles of Australian Equity and Trusts, to promote a deep understanding of the subject. Both books follow the same chapter order and structure, making it easy to use them in tandem.

In the third, fully revised and expanded edition of this cases and materials text, the discussion of the key concepts has been extended, putting the case extracts into their legal context. Helpful analysis of each extract will assist readers to understand why a particular case is important and the principle to be drawn from the decision. Additional cases have been included to ensure alignment with current teaching in equity and trusts. The new edition has also been expanded to include new chapters on fraud in equity, subrogation, contribution and marshalling.

Principles of Australian Equity and Trusts: Cases and Materials and its companion textbook Principles of Australian Equity and Trusts combine to make an ideal resource for students of equity and trusts, practitioners and anyone wishing to understand this complex area of law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228683>

The College of Law Victoria Practice Papers Set Volume 1, 2 & 3, 2016 – 2017
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780001080904 set
$ 364.50

This annual collection of Practice Papers supports The College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Victoria and is designed to provide useful practical guides for lawyers in their early years of practice or those wishing to become familiar with a new area of practice.

The Practice Papers in this volume are part of the complete set of papers for the College of Law's Practical Legal Training Program in Victoria. Each of the three volumes are available individually or can be purchased as a set.

The professional responsibility and accounting papers deal with the ethical standards, legislation, regulations and the written and unwritten rules, that govern the practice of law.

A number of other papers cover the skills essential to legal practice such as interviewing, advocacy, negotiation, drafting and work management.

The remaining papers are guides for lawyers working in the core practice areas of:

- civil litigation;
- commercial and corporate;
- property;
- administrative law;
- criminal law;
- employment and industrial relations;
- employment and industrial relations;
- planning and environment law; and
- wills and estates

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228684>

Australian Migration Legislation Collection July 2016 / Fernandez, R; Gerkens, M; Yau, D; Ozyurek, S
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344561

$ 99.00

Features

- clearly laid out with side-tabs for each subject
- legislation hand-picked by experienced teachers to match the curriculum
- authoritative source of legislation
- all of the required legislation in one portable, easy-to-navigate book

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228685>

LexisNexis Case Summaries - Civil Procedure / Simmons, K

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409339819

$ 40.00

The design of this popular book highlights catch words, the facts, issue and decision in each case so that the principles can be readily understood and memorised. This structure reflects modern case analysis.

The cases have been selected to align with current teaching in civil procedure in all Australian jurisdictions. An excellent study and revision resource for students, this book is a great quick reference for anyone wanting to understand the case law in this area.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228686>

LexisNexis Questions & Answers – Property Law, 3rd edition / Dow, C; Leigh, L

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409341911

$ 62.00

This book provides an understanding of property law and gives a clear and systematic approach to analysing and answering problem and exam questions. Each chapter commences with a summary of the key issues. Each question is followed by a suggested answer plan, a sample answer and comments on how the answer might be assessed by an examiner. The author also offers advice on potential errors to avoid when answering questions in the “Keep in Mind” section.

The third edition contains a new chapter on personal property and the PPSA.

Questions cover a comprehensive range of topics within the property law curriculum.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228687>

LexisNexis Questions and Answers: Taxation Law / Sangkhul, E; Buttigieg, T
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409340600
$ 62.00

This book, part of the successful LexisNexis Questions and Answer series, deals with taxation law.

LexisNexis Questions and Answers: Taxation Law is designed to facilitate both continuous review and preparation for examinations. It provides an understanding of taxation law and gives a clear and systematic approach to analysing and answering problem and exam questions. Each chapter commences with a summary of the relevant cases and identification of the key issues. Each question is followed by a suggested answer plan, a sample answer and comments on how the answer might be assessed by an examiner. The author also offers advice on common errors to avoid and practical hints and tips on how to achieve higher marks. Topics covered include ordinary income, statutory income, capital gains tax, general and specific deductions, capital allowances, entities, fringe benefits tax, GST and tax administration.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228689>

LexisNexis Case Summaries: Family Law, 6th edition / Holmes, D
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409341737
$ 40.00

LexisNexis Case Summaries — Family Law provides a concise summary of the key cases in Australian family law.

It highlights the facts, issues and decision in each case so that the principles can be readily understood and memorised. The cases have been selected to align with current teaching in family law.

This book is an excellent study and revision resource for students and a great quick reference for anyone wishing to stay current with key decisions in this dynamic area of law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228690>

Principles of Australian Constitutional Law, 5th edition / Keyzer, P; Goff, C; Fisher, A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409341959
$ 110.00

Principles of Australian Constitutional Law, now in its fifth edition, is a popular textbook aimed at students and practitioners that is now prescribed or recommended in many Australian law schools. It provides helpful summaries of the key cases and an analysis that helps readers to understand contemporary Australian constitutionalism.

Features

- Concise but comprehensive overview
- Examines the underlying principles that inform this area of law
- Included the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act and the Australia Act

- Lecturers have access to a suite of online ancillary on constitutional law

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228691>

Australian Corporations Legislation 2016 edition
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343465
$ 79.00

Australian Corporations Legislation 2016 provides a comprehensive single-volume collection of key corporations and related legislation. This edition includes expert annotations to key provisions of the Corporations Act 2001, and extensive editorial and historical notes. This text will give you practical, in-depth assistance and guide you through some of the most complex pieces of Australian legislation. The material in this 2016 edition includes the latest legislative amendments and is current as at 1 January 2016.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228692>

Australia's Constitutional Government / Richardson, J
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409341126
$ 99.00

The late Jack Richardson was convinced that the legal basis of federal government and the evolving patterns of power should be understandable — not just to experts in constitutional law, but to people in all walks of life. He believed it is essential that knowledge of the principles by which we are governed be available to the general public, and to participants in the federal system. The author advances expert knowledge by divining those principles. By describing their operation in words intelligible to readers who are not legally qualified, the author achieves his aim of acquainting a much wider range of people with the powers that rule them.

The result is a book that will be a great help to students and scholars of law, government, politics and history, as well as a useful guide for administrators, journalists, politicians and legal practitioners. Anyone who needs a straightforward explanation of an element of constitutional government will value the understanding they can easily get from the book.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228693>

Commercial Law 4th edition / Traves, S
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343045
$ 125.00

Commercial Law is a concise student text which considers not only the traditional areas of law that fall within its compass, but also other areas of law which, in a practical sense, are most relevant to commercial practice.

Part I of the text deals comprehensively with the fundamentals of personal property law, including ownership and possession, finding, accession, specification and intermixture. Part II covers general areas of commercial law including agency, sale of goods, consumer transactions and bailment. Written in a clear and concise manner, this text is a valuable resource for law students as well as professionals working in a number of areas of legal practice.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228694>

Australian Tax 2017 / Kenny, P; Blissenden, M; Villios, S
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344592
$ 139.00

Australian Tax 2017 by Paul Kenny, Michael Blissenden, Sylvia Villios and contributing authors Gordon Mackenzie and Lidia Xynas is an introductory level text offering a straightforward explanation of Australia's tax laws by using the unique tax pyramid method. This modern step-by-step process helps to simplify and explain Australia's complex tax laws and provides a framework for students to carry their knowledge into practice.

Australian Tax 2017 is designed for both international and domestic business students. It includes online student support, facilitating student engagement. Learning is supported by substantial questions and examples, from the most simple to the most complex. These are found in both the text and online working materials, together with solutions to selected questions.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228695>

Law in Commerce, 6th edition / Sweeney, B; O'Reilly, J; Coleman, A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409342857
$ 119.00

Law in Commerce is an easily accessible text for business law students. The sixth edition has been updated to include major developments in business law, including new cases on Australian Consumer Law.

Each chapter begins with a short scenario to 'set the scene'. Other features to assist learning include flow charts, diagrams, discussions of key points, case summaries and margin definitions. Additional online material includes a student webquiz, links to cases, news, updates and flashcards. Extensive lecturer support is also available.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228697>

Understanding Contract Law a practical guide / Giancaspro, M; Langos, C
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344141
$ 99.00

Understanding Contract Law – a practical guide is an introductory-level text designed for students in disciplines such as business or construction who need to understand contract law. It provides a concise overview of the Australian contract law system and illustrates how legal principles are applied in transactions. The authors present an authoritative but practical and readable text with no assumed knowledge of law.

Features

- Includes practical information on contract administration
- No assumed knowledge of law
- Strong pedagogy to assist learning

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228698>

Understanding Taxation Law 2017 / Taylor, J; Walpole, M; Burton, M; Ciro, T; Murray, I
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344851
$ 153.00

Understanding Taxation Law 2017 is a comprehensive introduction to the Australian tax law system and is an essential reference for business, accounting and law students. This updated edition uses a number of pedagogical features such as learning objectives, boxed case summaries, legislation extracts, revision questions, practical taxation activity problems and end of chapter summaries. Innovative online resources enhance the teaching and learning experience. This text will assist students studying at the higher end of the market by providing more than just technical detail. With easy-to-understand treatment of all topics in core undergraduate units, as well as informed commentary by a team of expert authors, Understanding Taxation Law 2017 is the ideal introduction to Australian tax for 2017.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228700>

Concise Tax Legislation 2017 / Kenny, P
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344189
$ 115.00

LexisNexis Concise Tax Legislation 2017 is an invaluable resource for both students and practitioners. It consolidates key Australian tax provisions in one easy to use volume, making for an excellent reference point for those studying and practising tax law in Australia. An introductory overview by Dr Paul Kenny also provides a handy summary of current tax provisions.

Features

- Consolidated text of major tax legislation
- Shaded tabs for enhanced navigability
- Extensive Index

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228701>

Law of Limitation / Dal Pont, G E

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409339444

$ 285.00

Written by authoritative author Gino Dal Pont, Law of Limitation is a comprehensive title focussing on the structure and application of limitations legislation. Australian limitation laws differ from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, and recent attempts to implement uniform legislation across all jurisdictions have not been achieved. Additionally, different limitation periods apply across a range of areas of legal practice, and so having a definitive resource on limitations is of critical importance for legal practitioners.

This title is an excellent reference for the core legal market, including lawyers (especially in litigation), barristers, government and the judiciary. It is well researched and punctuated by reference to developments in this area, including law reform outside of Australia.

Law of Limitation is part of the LexisNexis Black and Silver series.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228703>

Corporate Governance / Farrar, J; Hanrahan, P

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344028

$ 145.00

Corporate Governance by John Farrar and Pamela Hanrahan is a comprehensive text ideal for law and business students as well as those handling issues of corporate governance in day to day practice. The text provides a comprehensive analysis of the law of corporate governance in Australia and New Zealand within a global context.

It uses plain English and is clearly structured, covering a broad range of issues in modern corporate governance ranging from basic concepts, including the nature of a corporation, the legal framework of the modern corporation, directors' duties and shareholders' rights and responsibilities, to issues in contemporary corporate governance including self-regulation, corporate social responsibility and business ethics.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228704>

LexisNexis Study Guide Employment Law / Adams, K

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409340877

$ 54.00

The LexisNexis Study Guide series is designed to assist students in learning the foundations for effective, systematic exam preparation and revision. Each chapter clearly identifies and explains key topics within employment law. LexisNexis Study Guide Employment Law, written by employment and industrial relations lawyer Kathryn Adams, provides a comprehensive introduction to employment law in Australia and sets out a wide range of related topics making reference to recent cases and relevant legislation. It is a useful resource for both law, business or human resource management students, as well as professionals practising in this area.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228705>

Corporate Governance in Financial Services / Gamertsfelder, L

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409343489

$ 125.00

Corporate Governance in Financial Services is a comprehensive and incisive text that specifically covers corporate governance, conduct obligations and conduct risk.

This has been an area of intense ongoing interest among consumers, media, politicians, regulators and of course industry participants. This text provides an introduction to the nature of obligations which are specifically imposed on high managerial agents of corporations, and also provides an overview of general conduct obligations, mis-selling and conduct risk generally in financial services. Corporate Governance in Financial Services is a useful resource for practitioners working in the areas of commercial law, corporations law, intellectual property, litigation and media and communications.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228707>

LexisNexis Legislation Series Intellectual Property Collection 2017

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344165

$ 99.00

The LexisNexis Legislation Series Intellectual Property Collection 2017 consolidates the full text of intellectual property legislation and treaties into one helpful resource.

This edition consolidates the legislation to include amendments in force from 1 October 2016. It is an invaluable reference when studying or practising in the area of intellectual property.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228708>

Business and Corporations Law, 3rd edition / Fitzpatrick, J; Symes, C;

Veljanovski, A; Parker

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409343311

$ 124.00

Targeted to meet CPA Australia's accreditation requirements, Business and Corporations Law, 3rd edition, is ideal for accounting students studying combined business and corporations law in their masters course.

Divided into two parts, Business and Corporations Law guides students through essential legal principles of business and company law, and provides clear, concise explanations. Designed to assist student learning, chapter summaries, margin notes, key cases and legislation, diagrams and flowcharts create a greater understanding of the subjects within the broader business context.

Teaching and learning is supported by a comprehensive and innovative suite of online resources for both students and lecturers.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228712>

Criminal Defences in Australia, 5th edition / Fairall, P A; Barrett, M

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409339062

$ 195.00

Criminal Defences in Australia is a well-respected work on the market, and has been cited and referred to in practitioner and academic circles.

Extensively revised and updated, Criminal Defences in Australia (5th edition) provides a comprehensive analysis of the defences to criminal prosecutions both at common law and under statute in all jurisdictions of Australia. The various defences are described in detail, together with the circumstances under which they can be raised and how several defences can be combined. The inter-relationship of the defences is also fully explored, with an eye to jurisdictional differences. It also includes additional analysis of Infanticide and Infancy as well as touching upon the Commonwealth Criminal Code.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228713>

Australian Torts Law, 4th edition / Stickley, A

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409342048

$ 109.00

Australian Torts Law provides clear and accessible explanation and analysis of tort law in Australia. An understanding of the fundamental principles derived from both statute and the common law is fostered through engaging discussion of legislation and case law across all Australian jurisdictions.

Complex concepts in tort law are identified, explained and supported by numerous extracts and examples. Reading lists are provided at the end of each chapter to stimulate further research.

The fourth edition of Australian Torts Law has been fully revised and updated, and key statutory provisions are identified. Numerous recent decisions in areas such as trespass, nuisance and cases arising under the civil liability legislation are discussed to foster a critical appreciation of this evolving area of law. New cases include:

- Brookfield Multiplex Ltd v Owners Corp Strata Plan 61288 (2014) (pure economic loss)
- Hunter and New England Local Health District v McKenna (2014) (pure psychiatric injury)

- Wallace v Kam (2013) (factual causation and scope of defendant's liability in negligence)
- Marsh v Baxter (2015) (pure economic loss and nuisance)
- King v Philcox (2015) (mental harm under the Civil Liability Act 1936 (SA))
<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228714>

 Family Provision in Australia, 5th edition (Hardcover) / de Groot, J; Nickel, B,
 Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
 9780409345339
 $ 245.00

It is difficult to imagine a body of law more sensitive to changes in our society than the law of family provision. This highly anticipated Fifth Edition has been completely reviewed and updated with a further 250 cases considered. The existing concise case tables have been expanded to include new tables covering small estates, De Facto widowers, foster children and same sex partners. This edition also includes new sections dealing with special disability trusts, summary dismissal and Crisp orders. Essential reading for all practitioners, teachers and students involved in this challenging area of the law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228715>

 Understanding Business Law, 8th Edition / Graw, S; Parker, D; Whitford, K; Sangkuhl, E
 Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
 9780409343083
 $ 155.00

Understanding Business Law, 8th Edition by Stephen Graw, David Parker, Keturah Whitford, Elfriede Sangkuhl and Christina Do is an excellent resource for law and business students and an easily accessible reference for those encountering commercial law issues in day to day practice. Now in its eighth edition, its coverage includes the Australian legal system, the law of contract, sale of goods and consumer protection, agency, business organisations, property (including intellectual property), bailment, insurance, torts, debt recovery, bankruptcy and insolvency, negotiable instruments, banking and payment systems, employment law and business ethics. The authors use case examples and real-life scenarios to illustrate how legal principles are applied in a business context. This new edition is accompanied by extensive online materials to aid student learning and provide lecturer support.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228716>

Legal Professional Privilege in Australia, 3rd edition (Hardback) / Desiatnik, R
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409340761
$ 220.00

Legal Professional Privilege in Australia brings together all the important aspects of the doctrine and all substantive decisions thereon, in a readable fashion rather than a bare and dry exposition. It covers the doctrine both at common law and as set out in the Evidence Act 1995, including its qualifications and exceptions thereto, and closely examines the associate and complex doctrine of waiver of the privilege. It also cites numerous cases to provide detailed illustrations of the application of the doctrine.

Extensively revised and updated this third edition this practical book is an essential text for judges, magistrates, barristers, solicitors, police prosecutors, teachers and students of law

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228717>

Commonwealth Legislation & Administrative Law Collection 2017
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344837
$ 49.00

This up-to-date collection of Commonwealth legislation and administrative law serves as an easy reference for the study of constitutional, administrative and public law. The book includes the Acts that are central to the study and understanding of law and the foundations of the Australian legal system, and offers a selection of relevant legislation.

The collection is a practical and portable tool which students can take into class and exams.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228719>

Principles of International Law, 5th edition / Hall, S
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343243
$ 125.00

A clear, accessible and comprehensive guide to understanding international law

Principles of International Law explains and illustrates the essential concepts of international law from an Australian perspective. It provides an authoritative yet accessible guide to the structure of international law, its systemic requirements and major substantive topics.

Each chapter contains a clear statement of objectives, a list of key instruments and authorities, a lucid statement of the law, original analysis, extracts from relevant treaties and other international instruments, and helpful case summaries and extracts. Problem questions and suggested arguments for use in answering them are included, and further discussion questions are provided. An appendix of basic documents is included for convenient quick reference.

The fifth edition of Principles of International Law is updated and revised to incorporate the most recent developments in international law across a wide range of areas. Recent decisions from the International Court of Justice and other international and domestic tribunals have been added.

In an increasingly global society, a strong understanding of the principles of international law is invaluable. This text provides clear guidance to scholars, legal practitioners and students of law or international relations seeking to improve their knowledge and extend their understanding of this important subject.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228720>

LexisNexis Annotated Criminal Legislation Victoria, 2016-2017 / Nash, G
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343687
$ 109.00

This portable reference book provides easy access to annotated legislation for practitioners and students. The work, extracted from the four-volume looseleaf service Bourke's Criminal Law Victoria, provides extensive coverage of legislation and authoritative annotations. The 2016–2017 edition includes legislative amendments made during 2016.

Features

- quick reference directory
- covers Victorian jurisdiction only
- published annually
- easy navigation to legislation
- enables students and lecturers to focus on their own jurisdiction
- up-to-date annotated legislation saves lecturers and students time

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228721>

Criminal Defences in Australia, 5th edition (Hard cover) / Fairall, P A; Barrett, M
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409339079

$ 246.00

Criminal Defences in Australia is a well-respected work on the market, and has been cited and referred to in practitioner and academic circles.

Extensively revised and updated, Criminal Defences in Australia (5th edition) provides a comprehensive analysis of the defences to criminal prosecutions both at common law and under statute in all jurisdictions of Australia. The various defences are described in detail, together with the circumstances under which they can be raised and how several defences can be combined. The inter-relationship of the defences is also fully explored, with an eye to jurisdictional differences. It also includes additional analysis of Infanticide and Infancy as well as touching upon the Commonwealth Criminal Code.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228722>

Workplace Health and Safety Law in Australia, 2nd edition / Foster, N
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409342833

$ 132.00

Workplace Health and Safety Law in Australia provides an introduction to the law of workplace health and safety in Australia, and offers clear concise commentary on all aspects of related civil and criminal law. The book sets out the wide range of legal obligations employers and managers must understand to provide a safe and compliant workplace, including discussion of the contract of employment, common law obligations, workers' compensation law, anti-discrimination legislation and the statutory workplace safety law. This revised edition incorporates a thorough discussion of the state of the law since the introduction of harmonised legislation around Australia, including reference to the latest cases. It is an invaluable resource for business and law students, legal professionals and senior business managers alike.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228725>

South Australian Criminal Law and Procedure, 2nd edition / Caruso, D; Buth, R; Heath, M; Leader-Elliott, I; Leader-Elliott, P; Naffine, N; Plater, D; Toole, K
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344677
$ 120.00

South Australian Criminal Law and Procedure is the first critical work on the criminal law and process of South Australia. The first edition of this text concentrated on the substantive criminal law. This second edition includes four chapters on the principles and laws of criminal process. Seventeen chapters review and critically evaluate the theory and doctrines of criminal law in South Australia, including criminal law philosophy, legislative interpretation, major categories of common law and statutory offences and defences, policing and trial process and post-conviction appellate procedures. The text includes review and analysis, case studies and exercises and critical assessment of the formulation, development, rationale and status of South Australian criminal law and procedure.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228726>

Resolving Civil Disputes / Legg, M
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344097
$ 99.00

Efficient and effective resolution of disputes is central to civil society. However, resolution processes are subject to significant practical and policy issues. Resolving Civil Disputes identifies and explores these challenges.

Structured to address the roles that litigation and various other forms of dispute resolution play in resolving civil disputes in the modern era, the book fosters an understanding of how to evaluate and select the most appropriate resolution technique for a civil dispute, through processes such as negotiation, mediation, arbitration and litigation.

The distinctive and vital role of litigation is explained, while questioning whether a broader view of justice may be taken and how the courts and alternative dispute resolution may interact. The mechanics of litigation and mediation are examined through insights into the key steps of each process.

The utility of dispute resolution techniques to deliver access to justice is discussed, especially key responses such as pro bono, class actions and litigation funding with respect to court-based resolution processes.

Major drivers of change in our time, technology and globalisation, have significant ramifications for dispute resolution. The text explores the impact of technology on lawyers, litigation and alternative dispute resolution and explains the development and practice of transnational litigation and international commercial arbitration as responses to globalisation.

The clear and authoritative analysis has been contributed by leading experts from the judiciary, academia, legal and dispute resolution practice. This unique text provides invaluable guidance for practitioners, policy-makers, students, researchers and anyone interested in dispute resolution techniques.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228727>

Securities and Financial Services Law, 9th edition / Baxt, R; Black, A; Hanrahan, P

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409343069

$ 160.00

Now in its ninth edition, Securities and Financial Services Law is the leading legal analysis of securities and financial services law and regulation in Australia. The book provides a comprehensive and practical treatment of the relevant parts of the Corporations Act and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Act, the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) Listing and ASIC Market Integrity Rules, ASIC policy, the market competition and Future of Financial Advice reforms, as well as reference to relevant case law. An introductory chapter presents an overview of the development and shape of securities regulation in Australia. The balance of the work is structured into parts focusing on securities and financial product issuers, including continuous disclosure requirements, investor claims for defective disclosure and securities class actions; markets; intermediaries; and market conduct regulation. Written by leading experts in the field, this book is a valuable resource for law and business students, legal practitioners, securities industry professionals, bankers and accountants.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228728>

Sackville & Neave Australian Property Law, 10th edition / Edgeworth, B; Rossiter, C; O'Connor, P; Godwin, A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343786
$ 159.00

The book retains the structure adopted in the ninth edition and incorporates various innovations, including an increased focus on the transactional context within which the substantive law operates. Chapter 1 deals with conceptual issues that underpin and define the ambit of property law. Later chapters examine four broad issues with which the law of property is concerned: the fragmentation of proprietary interests (Ch 2, 3 & 6); the acquisition and transfer of proprietary interests (Ch 4); and the enforceability of proprietary interests and related priority issues (Ch 4 & 5). The book also examines the rules regulating the creation and enforcement of particular interests in land, including leases, easements, restrictive covenants and mortgages.

Important recent appellate court cases and statutes covered include:

- Cassegrain
- Akiba
- Brown
- Congoo
- Sidhu
- Jea Holdings
- Sogutlu

Student learning support for this book is available on Campus. An exciting range of lecturer support (developed by the authors and lecturers) is available for lecturers who prescribe this book to their students.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228729>

Waller & Williams Criminal Law Text and Cases, 13th edition / Crofts, P; Crofts, T; Gray, S; Kirchengast, T; Naylor, B; Tudor, S

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343885
$ 159.00

This new edition of the classic Waller & Williams Criminal Law text retains its relevance in legal and policy debates in criminal justice, providing a critical analysis of legal developments while remaining accessible for students in law schools.

The 13th edition includes new leading cases from the principal appellate courts in New South Wales, Victoria and the High Court of Australia, as well as the latest legislative provisions that have significantly changed the fabric of the criminal law.

This book unites the principal authoritative sources of the criminal law and a critical appraisal and evaluation of its doctrines. It offers comparative and policy insights into legal developments of the two common law jurisdictions of Victoria and New South Wales.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228731>

Auditing and Assurance: A Case Studies Approach, 7th edition / Martinov-Bennie, N; Soh, D; Frobis, K
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343946
$ 80.00

Now in its 7th edition, Auditing and Assurance: A Case Studies Approach provides a challenging and practical methodology for auditing and assurance students at both undergraduate and postgraduate level.

Written by experts in the field, this book provides an overall contextual model to understanding the key elements of the audit process. Each chapter contains real life case studies which are designed to assist self-learning and improved application skills.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228732>

Annotated Criminal Legislation New South Wales 2016-2017 / Howie, R N; Johnson, P A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343717

$ 109.00

This book, extracted from Criminal Practice and Procedure NSW (available on LexisNexis Red, as a four-volume looseleaf service and online at www.lexisnexis.com/au/legal), provides extensive coverage of legislation and authoritative annotations by Roderick N Howie QC, a former judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, and Peter A Johnson, a judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

The 2016–2017 edition includes legislative amendments made by, inter alia: Courts and Other Justice Portfolio Legislation Amendment Act 2015 No 67, Crimes Amendment (Off-road Fatal Accidents) Act 2015 No 61, Criminal Procedure Amendment (Child Sexual Offence Evidence Pilot) Act 2015 No 46, Firearms and Weapons Prohibition Legislation Amendment Act 2015 No 63, Terrorism (Police Powers) Amendment (Investigative Detention) Act 2016 No 17 and more.

This text is a valuable resource for any students or practitioners working in the field of auditing and assurance. It is also useful for candidates undertaking the Audit and Assurance (AAA) Module in the Chartered Accountants (CA) Program and CPA Australia's CPA Program.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228734>

Australian Dispute Resolution Law and Practice / Boulle, L; Field, R

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409341850

$ 129.00

Australian Dispute Resolution provides a theoretical, coherent and accessible treatment of modern conflict management and dispute resolution in Australia. It focuses on the knowledge, skills, ethics and values that are essential for effective contemporary legal practice and fundamental to the future sustainability of the legal profession.

Dispute resolution options across the spectrum of available techniques are explained and discussed. The book covers not only the traditional dispute resolution processes but also incorporates several new dimensions to the field, replacing outdated notions of ADR with a more appropriate presentation of the dispute resolution matrix. The authors provide a new typology of different categories and individual processes of dispute resolution, supported by a refreshing rethink of the values and goals underpinning those processes.

By examining the fundamental relationship between theory and practice, the authors bring an understanding of conflict and disputes into the forefront of the legal knowledge base for lawyers for whom disputes are a primary business.

In the dynamic world of dispute resolution, the book is essential reading for practitioners, litigators, researchers and anyone interested in the future of law and lawyering, while its scholarly and authoritative analysis will engage and inform students as a foundation for successful legal practice.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228735>

Carter's Criminal Law of Queensland, 21st edition / Shanahan, M J; Ryan, S M; Rafter, A J; Costanzo, J J; Hoare, A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343663
$ 166.00

Carter's Criminal Law of Queensland is the definitive resource for students, practitioners and anyone else who needs a sound understanding of the criminal law of Queensland. This book has an established reputation as an essential reference. Annotated by Judge M J Shanahan, P E Smith and S Ryan, it is an indispensable resource tool that provides comprehensive analysis and explanation of the provisions and relevant case law for students and practitioners. Its section-based structure and updated index and table of cases provide the reader with simple and quick access to the law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228736>

Civil Procedure in Papua New Guinea National Court of Justice (Hard cover) / Katter, D; Gordon, R; Andersen, E
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409339529
$ 149.00

This annotated reference work provides an indispensable guide to the principles applicable to civil procedure in the National Court of Justice of Papua New Guinea.

The work includes the annotated and consolidated National Court Rules 1983, as amended by the:

- National Court Appeal Rules 2005
- Motions (Amendment) Rules 2005
- Listings Rules 2005
- Judicial Review (Amendment) Rules 2005
- National Court (Commercial List) Rules 2005
- Rules of the National Court of Justice (Underlying Law Amendment)

2011

- Human Rights Rules 2010

It also includes the National Court Election Petition Rules 2002 (as amended in 2007) and the Rules Relating to the Accreditation, Regulation, and Conduct of Mediators 2010 (ADR Rules). A detailed index is also provided.

The clear explanations of principle and analysis of relevant case law make this text highly valuable to both legal practitioners and students of civil procedure in Papua New Guinea.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228738>

Unconscionable Conduct in Australian Consumer and Commercial Contracts /
Sharpe, M

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409343557

$ 130.00

Written by Dr Michelle Sharpe, Unconscionable Conduct in Australian Consumer and Commercial Contracts provides legal practitioners with a detailed and practical guide through the often murky and confusing law relating to unconscionable advantage-taking by one contracting party over another.

Contracts for the supply of goods and services form the basis of our modern free economy. The pervading policy of modern contract law is that parties are free to contract for the supply of goods and services on whatever terms they think fit. This freedom of contract may appear to be curtailed by certain contract law doctrines and consumer protection legislation. This book provides a detailed and up-to-date account of the law including current cases and legislation, as well as explaining how the relevant common law and equitable doctrines fit within contract law and the pervading policy of freedom of contract, and the rationale behind the relevant consumer protection legislation.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228739>

Children and the Law in Australia, 2nd edition / Young, L; Kenny, M A; Monahan, G
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409342024
$ 139.00

The second edition of this highly-regarded work provides extensive coverage of the ways in which the law and children interact. Topics such as criminal law, the internet, immigration law, family law, medical law, discrimination law, education and the legal process are included with contributions from expert authors in each area. Each chapter is contributed by an expert on that topic and is written to provide a clear, authoritative and accessible discussion suitable for a wide audience.

This edition provides an extended socio-legal focus, ensuring the work is relevant for practitioners, non-legal professionals working in child-related areas, researchers and students in both law and non-law units at undergraduate and postgraduate level. It includes discussion on topical issues such as: surrogacy, youth rights, the internet and cyber bullying, international adoption, migration, international child abduction, the Royal Commission into Child Sexual Assault, and the impact of the Convention on the Rights of the Child on Australian Law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228741>

Hutley's Australian Wills Precedents, 9th Edition / Birtles, C; Neal, R
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409344042
$ 189.00

Since its first publication in 1970, Hutley's Australian Wills Precedents has become the essential reference work on the art of will drafting in Australia. This 9th edition written by Craig Birtles and Richard Neal continues to provide an authoritative system of precedents for practitioners supported by a full explanation of the law and the authors' opinion as to the implications for will drafters of the relevant Court decisions.

The 9th edition contains updated legislation, case law and commentary, as well as a streamlining of precedents making for a user-friendly text. New cases and statutes have been taken into account and contentious issues critically examined.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228743>

Hanks Australian Constitutional Law Materials and Commentary, 10th Edition /
Meagher, D; Simpson, A; Stellios, J; Wheeler, F

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409341973

$ 150.00

This book considers the concepts underlying our Constitution and explores constitutional decision-making in context. It reviews all of the important constitutional decisions of the High Court of Australia, and exposes the issues that arise in those decisions to a critical analysis. The book covers all major areas of study in both constitutional law and public law.

Updates for this edition include the two Williams cases in which the High Court reworked the executive power of the Commonwealth to contract and spend; recent cases developing the Kable principles and considering the validity of State laws against Chapter III implications; important recent cases on the implied freedom of political communication; recent cases on s 92 of the Constitution dealing with internet trade and commerce.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228744>

Annotated Civil Liability Legislation – Queensland, 4th edition / Douglas, R;

Mullins, G; Grant, S

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344547

$ 205.00

Annotated Civil Liability Legislation: Queensland, 4th edition, a well-renowned title, is a unique and practical guide to the interpretation and application of the Civil Liability Act 2003 (Qld).

The publication of this 4th edition offers detailed guidance and commentary on the nationwide wholesale advances in jurisprudence that has evolved over of the interpretation of the Civil Liability Act 2003 (Qld), one of the most important pieces of legislation in Queensland's recent history. Annotated Civil Liability Legislation - Queensland includes a comprehensive treatment of the proportionate liability provisions of the Act, which have changed the face of the conduct of commercial and property damage claims arising in claims for negligence and statutory misleading or deceptive conduct. It also contains cross-references to the cognate provisions of the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 (Qld).

New to this edition is an introductory overview of the provisions and their application.

The well-defined annotated format of this text affords practitioners commencement and application information, expert commentary by reference to case law and journal treatment, together with cross-referencing to interstate and federal analogues.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228746>

Hutley's Australian Wills Precedents, 9th Edition (Hard cover) / Birtles, C; Neal, R

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409344059

$ 239.00

Since its first publication in 1970, Hutley's Australian Wills Precedents has become the essential reference work on the art of will drafting in Australia. This 9th edition written by Craig Birtles and Richard Neal continues to provide an authoritative system of precedents for practitioners supported by a full explanation of the law and the authors' opinion as to the implications for will drafters of the relevant Court decisions.

The 9th edition contains updated legislation, case law and commentary, as well as a streamlining of precedents making for a user-friendly text. New cases and statutes have been taken into account and contentious issues critically examined.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228747>

Hayes & Eburn, Criminal Law and Procedure in New South Wales, 5th edition / Eburn, E; Howie, R; Satler, P; Hood, M

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409343762

$ 145.00

Hayes & Eburn Criminal Law and Procedure in New South Wales states the basic principles and provides the fundamental source material required for a study of New South Wales criminal law and procedure. It examines the substantive law in a procedural and evidentiary context.

This book is specifically designed to meet the needs of students who will be studying criminal law over one semester. The text covers all the learning requirements prescribed in the Legal Profession Admission Rules 2005 (NSW). It gives students the thorough grounding they need in the basic principles of the criminal justice system before moving to the detail of their application in an expanding range of discrete contexts. It also provides practitioners with an introduction to the principal authorities and statutory provisions governing the practice of criminal law in New South Wales.

While this book remains unique for its strong focus on the jurisprudence of the New South Wales criminal courts, the principles explored in it will also assist in understanding the criminal law of all Australian jurisdictions.

A special feature of the book continues to be the provision of explanatory flowcharts, aimed at introducing the reader to the framework of general principles, before proceeding to an examination of the principles in detail. The book also provides a series of examples and problems suitable for discussion in lectures, tutorials and students' study groups.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228748>

Insolvent Trading and Fraudulent Trading in Australia: Regulation and Context /
Gooley, J; Gooley, M

Australia: LexisNexis, 2016

9780409343915

$ 109.00

Insolvent Trading and Fraudulent Trading in Australia: Regulation and Context extensively examines the regulation of insolvent trading and fraudulent trading in both an historical and contemporary light, including discussion in the context of:

- Judicial analysis
- Historical developments
- Contemporary theory

- Legislative reform
- International jurisdictions
- The corporate environment
- Regulatory provisions of incorporated non-profit associations and co-operatives

Additionally, this text provides up-to-date commentary on a number of aspects of the reforms to the Corporations Act 2001 which have been brought about by the introduction of the Insolvency Law Reform Act 2016 (Cth). The reforms will pose significant implications on the law of personal liability of individual directors in insolvent trading cases.

Written by authoritative and respected authors, Insolvent Trading and Fraudulent Trading in Australia: Regulation and Context is a valuable resource for legal practitioners, company directors, and law students undertaking specialised corporate law courses in company administration.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228749>

Company Directors: Principles of Law and Corporate Governance, 2nd edition
(Cased) / Austin, R; Ramsay, P
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409337884
$ 285.00

Company Directors: Principles of Law and Corporate Governance is a detailed, scholarly and comprehensive analysis of law and governance as they relate to Australian company directors. This updated second edition examines the duties of company directors, remedies for breach of these duties, and the structure and operations of the board of directors, taking into account legislative and case law developments which have occurred since the first edition was published in 2005.

Written by highly-respected authors in the field of corporate law, the book also includes expert commentary on corporate governance as it relates to company directors.

A new title in the LexisNexis Black and Silver series, this text is divided into three comprehensive parts, covering the structure and powers of company directors, specific duties imposed on directors, and enforcement of duties as well as remedies for breach of directors' duties.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228750>

Legal Problem Solving and Syllogistic Analysis: A Guide for Foundation Law Students / Yin, K; Desierto, A
Australia: LexisNexis, 2016
9780409343229
$ 87.00

Understanding how to go about solving legal problems is a critical skill law students require in order to achieve success at law school and later in professional practice. This innovative text is a guide to developing students' critical thinking in solving legal problems through the application of the principles of logic.

The authors explain how syllogistic analysis provides the underlying basis for legal problem solving using the IRAC method commonly taught in foundation law studies.

Drawing on everyday examples, the processes of everyday reasoning are used both to deconstruct and reconstruct the reasoning itself. The step-by-step approach demonstrates the application of legal reasoning and research to generate appropriate responses to legal issues. It assists students to engage in critical analysis so as to make a reasoned choice amongst alternative responses to those legal problems.

For lecturers, the book is supported by an online teaching guide and a suite of supplementary learning resources.

The learning and use of syllogisms as the basis for IRAC and its variants is supported with accessible models, clear analysis and scaffolding. The methodology is supported by research into the most effective teaching and learning approaches and incorporates scaffolding, provision of feedback, teacher-student interaction, student-centred teaching, contextualisation, drawing on students' experiences and empowering students by equipping them with the cognitive skills required in real-life lawyers from the outset of their law studies.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228751>

Contemporary Issues in Criminal Law / Edited by Emma Henderson
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016
9781760020743
$ 45.00

"Coward's-punch" manslaughter provisions; paperless arrest warrants; hooligan-party-crasher offences; bikie consorting laws; new bail provisions for domestic violence perpetrators; ever-extending applications to complicity and more: the use of the criminal law to respond to social and moral panics is as prevalent and as concerning as it is longstanding. From the doctrine of necessity to the Royal Commission on Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse, this Special Issue covers a wide range of challenging contemporary criminal legal problems, drawn from those presented at the annual Criminal Law Workshop in 2015, all focusing on the perennial issue of the boundaries of the criminal law. Is society really being plagued by new forms of offending which demand contemporary legal responses, or are we being subjected to heightened levels of over-reach in order to shore up our "tough on crime" credentials?

Contemporary Issues in Criminal Law is a special issue (Volume 34 No 2) of the journal Law in Context. You can purchase a single copy of this issue through this page, or subscribe to the journal from the journal page.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228753>

Crime, Aboriginality and the Decolonisation of Justice - 2nd edition / Harry Blagg
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016
9781760020576
$ 55.00

Crime, Aboriginality and the Decolonisation of Justice explores contemporary strategies which might reduce the extraordinary levels of imprisonment and victimisation suffered by Aboriginal people in Australia. These are problems that continue to rise despite numerous inquiries and reports.

Harry Blagg disputes the relevance of the western, urban, criminological paradigm to the Aboriginal domain, and questions the application of both contemporary innovations such as restorative justice and mainstream models of policing. He also refutes allegations that Aboriginal customary laws condone violence against women and children, pointing to the wealth of research to the contrary, and suggests these laws contain considerable potential for renewal and healing. This book maintains that unresolved questions of colonisation, decolonisation and sovereignty lie at the heart of debates about criminal justice in post-colonial Australia. It explores the potential for 'hybrid' initiatives in the complex 'liminal' space between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal domains, for example, Aboriginal community/night patrols, community justice groups, healing centres and Aboriginal courts.

This new edition covers emerging issues such as Foetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD) and reports on the consequences of the Commonwealth Government's contentious 'intervention' in remote Northern Territory communities in 2007.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228754>

Environmental and Planning Law in New South Wales - 4th edition / Rosemary Lyster, Zada Lipman, Nicola Franklin, Linda Pearson and Graeme Wiffen
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016
9781760020545
$ 100.00

The key changes in this edition concern planning and assessment, changes to Australia's energy and climate law regime as well as an entirely new chapter on Mining and Environmental Law. The book continues to provide effective integration of planning and assessment provisions with environmental law topics such as pollution control; the protection of biodiversity and heritage; natural resource issues such as energy and water; global and domestic attempts to deal with climate change; and corporate social responsibility. The focus goes beyond NSW to take account of international as well as national developments, including detailed analysis of the relevant Commonwealth law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228756>

Industrial Relations Reform: Looking to the Future : Essays in honour of Joe Isaac AO / Edited by Keith Hancock and Russell D Lansbury
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016
9781760020699
$ 55.00

Industrial relations is critically important for economic performance as well as the social cohesion of a nation. In Australia, industrial relations has been subject to numerous reforms by both Labor and Liberal-National Party Coalition governments during recent decades.

This book critically analyses recent changes in work and employment relations and their policy implications for Australia. Scholarly essays by prominent experts in the field examine the lessons that can be learned from previous attempts to reform industrial relations by governments with different political agendas and challenges which may lie ahead.

Some of the key questions addressed in this book include:

- What can be learned from past attempts to reform the industrial relations system?
- What have been the impacts of recent legislative reforms from the Howard government's 'WorkChoices' to the Rudd/Gillard government's 'Fair Work Australia' and the recent Abbott/Turnbull government's policies on industrial relations?
- How does politics influence proposals for industrial relations reform?
- What reforms are required in relation to women, work and family issues?
- How should collective bargaining and dispute settlement systems be reformed?
- How have wages and productivity been affected by reforms of the industrial relations system?
- What are the key issues facing Australia in relation to immigration and workforce skills?

The book is based on a symposium which celebrated the outstanding contributions of Professor Joe Isaac to scholarship and the practice of industrial relations in Australia and at the international level for more than seven decades.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228757>

Judicial Independence in Australia : Contemporary Challenges, Future Directions / Edited by Rebecca Ananian-Welsh and Jonathan Crowe
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016

9781760020651

$ 150.00

Judicial independence is a fundamental aspect of law and governance in Australia, commanding near universal endorsement. Despite its vital importance, the independence of the Australian judiciary is threatened on a variety of fronts. This volume brings together some of Australia's leading constitutional scholars to discuss judicial independence and its contemporary challenges, including challenges posed by politics, judicial selection, extra-judicial activities, social media and the war on terror. Contributions include theoretical, empirical and comparative perspectives. The book includes an initial essay by former Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia, Sir Anthony Mason AC KBE CBE QC. The volume provides a valuable guide to future directions in law and governance, with an eye to strengthening judicial independence in Australia.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228758>

Land Contracts in Queensland 4th edition / By S A Christensen, W M Dixon, W D Duncan and Stephen E Jones

Australia : The Federation Press, 2016

9781760020507

$ 125.00

Land Contracts in Queensland provides a thorough, user-friendly account of the law relating to buying and selling freehold land in Queensland.

The authors analyse the substance of the transaction through the medium of the latest standard REIQ Residential, Commercial and Community Titles contracts, and draw on a comprehensive range of court decisions relating to the area. There are chapters covering contract formation including the role of the real estate agent, the disclosure regime for sellers and agents, subject matter, the inclusion of special conditions, risk, completion both through the paper based medium and electronic conveyancing and stamp duty and GST implications.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228760>

Law and Love : With Michael Kirby on the Future of Law Schools / Edited by Renata Grossi and Joshua Neoh

Australia : The Federation Press, 2016

9781760020620

$ 45.00

In our social imaginary, love has become the major existential goal of our times, which is capable of providing all of us with a sense of worth and a way of being in the world (Beck & Beck-Gernsheim, 1995). Love has become our ‘ultimate source of meaning and happiness’: it is a ‘gift’ that affirms the beloved and transforms us to a higher state of being (May, 2011).

In our political imaginary, law has become our highest political ideal. Life with the rule of law marks us out as a civilized nation and people. Liberal citizenship is defined by one’s belief in the rule of law. No event, actor or claim escapes the rule of law – there is no field of life in which law has not or cannot enter (Kahn, 2000).

This special issue aims to explore the intersection of the ideal of love in our social imaginary and the rule of law in our political imaginary. Further it aims to reflect on the ways in which law understands and interacts with love, and gives and takes meanings from love, and vice-versa.

Law and Love is a special issue (Volume 34 No 1) of the journal Law in Context. You can purchase a single copy of this issue through this page, or subscribe to the journal from the journal page.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228762>

Law in Context : A socio-legal journal / Edited by Marc Trabsky and Laura Griffin

Australia : The Federation Press, 2016

08115796

$ 85.00

Law in Context is a peer-reviewed journal published periodically. Subscription is by volume, and the cost includes postage and handling. Please note the prices shown above right are for subscription by institutions. For individuals, the cost is Au$49.95 within Australia and Au$60.00 outside Australia. Please indicate in your order if you are purchasing as an individual rather than as an institution.

Single issues are also available for purchase. See each issue below for further information, including pricing. Postage is not included in individual prices.

Permissions: Permission requests to reproduce journal articles must be directed to the Publisher. Please refer to our guidelines in the attached PDF for more information: Permissions

Electronic access: Electronic access to the entire journal is currently being provided under licence by third parties. Services include:

- EBSCO Host databases
- Informit eLibrary

Other services will be advised as they come online. For volume availability, pricing and access, please contact EBSCO, Informit, or your subscription agent directly.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228763>

Leading Cases in Australian Law : A Guide to the 200 Most Frequently Cited Judgments / Daniel Reynolds and Lyndon Goddard
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016
9781760020606
$ 75.00

Leading Cases in Australian Law provides, in essence, a summary of the 200 most cited cases in Australian law. Each case note contains an outline of the facts, issues and decision, an extract of the most frequently cited portions of the judgment, commentary incorporating later decisions on the topic, and cross-references to the leading texts on the legal area of the case. Finally, under each case heading there is a single-sentence proposition for which the case stands as authority, and these are later collated in a table for easy reference.

This is the first book of its kind published in Australia, and it is intended to serve as a portrait of Australian law as currently practised. Appendices are included to complete this picture, providing further information such as lists of top cases by subject area, and a ranking of the most cited judges.

This book will be useful to law students, who will likely encounter most of these cases during the course of their degree, as well as to legal practitioners, who will find it a useful reference for the cases that have faded from memory since law school as well as the cases cited in daily practice.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228764>

Lives of Australian Chief Justices Set / J M Bennett AM
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016
9781862875036
$

This set comprises the fifteen volumes in the Lives of the Australian Chief Justices series, covering all six States of Australia and is available for the special price of $600.00. You may order the whole set by clicking on Add to Trolley.

Most Individual volumes may be purchased at the rrp of $49.50 (direct price $45.00), however for one or two Lives, the rrp is $59.95 (direct price $55.00), or $64.95 (direct price $60.00). Any individual volume may be ordered by clicking on the name of the Judge below.

Special prices for each State Set are set out below. All State Sets may be ordered by email, please click on the click here:

New South Wales $210.00 - to order NSW State Set, click here
Tasmania $ 80.00 - to order Tasmanian State Set, click here
Victoria $120.00 - to order Victorian State Set, click here
Western Australia $ 80.00 - to order Western Australian State Set, click here
Queensland $ 90.00 - to order Queensland State Set, click here

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228765>

Sir Frederick Darley : Sixth Chief Justice of New South Wales 1886-1910 / J M Bennett AM

Australia : The Federation Press, 2016

9781760020569

$ 60.00

J M Bennett's Sir Frederick Darley, the new biography in his acclaimed Lives of the Australian Chief Justices series, describes in fascinating detail one of the most extraordinary episodes in Australian judicial history. In November 1886, the circumstances being unprecedented, New South Wales had three successive Chief Justices.

On 4 November Sir James Martin died in office. Attorney-General Want, pressing a false claim to the vacancy, nevertheless declined it. The salary was too low. The great orator W B Dalley, QC, also rejected the position. His health was failing. F M Darley, QC, was immediately approached, but having a large family to support, he also declined. The government turned to Julian Salomons, QC, who accepted and was gazetted. Almost immediately, without taking his seat, he resigned for the extraordinary reasons disclosed in Dr Bennett's fascinating chapter on the "Phantom Chief Justice". A perplexed government urged Darley's reconsideration. He did so reluctantly, serving from 29 November at great financial sacrifice. As the Hon Keith Mason, AC, QC, notes in his insightful foreword, Darley's reluctance to serve was ultimately "matched only by his reluctance to relinquish the role over 20 years later".

Richly detailed chapters trace Darley's progression from birth and education in Ireland to Bar practice there at a time when too many lawyers competed for too little work. Darley migrated to Sydney, succeeding beyond his wildest hopes to build a preeminent practice, command a fortune and become a Legislative Councillor.

Always regarding Australia as his "adopted country", he retained his "Irishness" to the end. With characteristic care and precision, the author reviews Darley's judicial career, his distinguished presidency over the Supreme Court in difficult years, and his work administering the colony on many occasions as Lieutenant-Governor.

Darley might well have retired in 1902 when he accepted a place on the English Royal Commission inquiring into the poor military performance in the Boer War. But despite illness, and resistance to social and industrial change, he persevered on the bench until his death in 1910.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228767>

The Law of Tribunals : Annotated Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 (NSW) / John Levingston
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016
9781862879782
$ 135.00

This is a practical book about the law governing practice and procedure in Tribunals with annotations on the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 (NSW).

Tribunals exercise administrative, curial and inquisitorial powers and are playing a greater role in the administration of justice in Australia for resolving administrative and civil disputes than ever before. This has resulted in the consolidation of the many tribunals in the States and Territories into large 'super tribunals' covering the field of administrative disputes between citizens and government, civil disputes between citizens, and supervisory, disciplinary and protective matters concerning protection of the community and individuals.

Designed with ease of use in mind, this book includes:

- commentary on the law of tribunals;
- annotated versions of the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2013 (NSW) and the Civil and Administrative Tribunal Rules 2014 (NSW);
- a comparative table highlighting corresponding sections of legislation for the tribunals in the various States and Territories.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228768>

Tom Hughes QC : A Cab on the Rank / Ian Hancock

Australia : The Federation Press, 2016

9781760020583

$ 55.00

For more than thirty years, Tom Hughes, a scion of a notable Sydney family of high achievers, was one of Australia's top barristers, renowned, respected and sometimes feared for his dominating presence in the courtroom. Equally at home in all jurisdictions, his theatrical style, command of language and forensic skills filled public galleries, exposed witnesses, persuaded juries and ensured that judges paid attention. An icon of the Sydney and Australian Bar, he appeared in a raft of celebrated cases, became the subject of many media profiles and was, from the 1970s to the 1990s, the country's most expensive advocate.

Hughes has also been a wartime pilot, a politician, an activist federal Attorney-General, a grazier, and a racehorse owner. He survived a broken marriage, a spiteful sacking from ministerial office and a prolonged though not permanent loss of an inherited Catholic faith. He endured years of frustration before finding the right partner to replicate the perfect marriage of his beloved parents. Even in dark times, however, a thorough professional and a prodigious worker, Hughes remained focused on his first love, the law, always upholding its traditions and processes.

In addition to published material, the book draws on a huge trove of personal records, including fee books, intimate diaries, autobiographical jottings and private correspondence, supplemented by interviews with Hughes, his family, friends and colleagues. Using these sources, the book provides insights into a many-sided character - telling the story of how Hughes and his immediate forebears embraced more of their English than their Irish heritage while becoming distinctively Australian. It also offers a personal perspective on several decades of Australian political, social and legal history.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228769>

Uniform Evidence Law : Text and Essential Cases - 3rd edition / John Anderson
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016
9781760020521
$ 99.00

The third edition of Uniform Evidence Law: Text and Essential Cases continues the style of integrated discussion of evidence law from the earlier editions of this work resulting in a seamless synthesis and analysis of this significant area of law and practice. A critical and comparative analysis of the provisions of the uniform Evidence Acts and relevant evidentiary principles is undertaken to provide the reader with important insights into the practical operation of the legislation and to consider the ongoing relevance of the common law and other sources of law in certain areas. Six of the Australian jurisdictions have now joined the uniform evidence legislative scheme and the most recent cases and legislative amendments have been incorporated to ensure the most up-to-date coverage of the law in all of the uniform Evidence Act jurisdictions. This includes some important divergences in interpretation of the 'uniform' legislation, particularly in NSW and Victoria in relation to the assessment of probative value for the purposes of ss 135 and 137.

The case extracts provide a useful mix of seminal and recent decisions to reflect the most current judicial interpretations of the uniform Evidence Acts and judicial statements of evidentiary principles. The chapter order from the second edition has been retained to closely reflect the structure of the uniform Evidence Acts and the incremental topic sequencing of most university undergraduate courses in evidence law.

Uniform Evidence Law is an essential tool and will enhance the understanding of the practical operation of evidence law in the various litigation contexts in which it arises.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228770>

Veterans' Entitlements and Military Compensation Law - 3rd edition / By Robin Creyke and Peter Sutherland
Australia : The Federation Press, 2016

9781760020460

$ 140.00

This is the only book devoted to the law on veterans' entitlements and military compensation in Australia. The book comprehensively annotates the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (VEA) and, in this third edition, for the first time annotates the new unified military compensation scheme introduced by the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (MRCA).

The third edition covers all of the recent major reports into the veterans' law and military compensation system and includes annotations of all relevant High Court, Federal Court and Administrative Appeals Tribunal decisions on the two Acts. The book is an invaluable reference for all those assisting veterans to obtain their entitlements to the pensions and benefits available to those who have served their country – be they ex-service organisations, tribunal members, legal practitioners or Departmental officials.

Highlights of the third edition include:

- a new section of the book discussing the cases on the application of Statements of Principles under the two Acts;
- comprehensive annotations of complex issues under the VEA, including qualifying service, special rate of pension, GARP, allowances, standards of proof and review of decisions;
- annotations and commentary on issues under the MRCA, including liability for compensation, incapacity, permanent impairment, death benefits, and transitional arrangements for previous schemes;
- the interaction between the VEA and the MRCA; and
- appendices which include an amendment history of the VEA and of the MRCA, an index of MRCA legislative instruments, discussion of defence honours and awards, and war grave eligibility.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228771>

When Doctors and Parents Disagree : Ethics, Paediatrics and the Zone of Parental Discretion / Edited by Rosalind McDougall, Clare Delany and Lynn Gillam

Australia : The Federation Press, 2016

9781760020590

$ 75.00

In paediatrics, clinicians and parents sometimes disagree about the appropriate medical treatment for a child. Parents can prefer an option that differs from the clinician's recommendation. When should the parents' decision about their child's medical treatment be overridden?

This book explores ethical decision-making when clinicians and parents disagree about medical treatment for a child. It develops and explores a concept called the zone of parental discretion: an ethical tool that aims to balance children's wellbeing and parents' rights to make medical decisions for their children. Written by experienced clinical ethicists and paediatric clinicians, this book offers ethical analysis and practical guidance based on real-life clinical cases. It aims to assist doctors, nurses, allied health professionals and clinical ethics staff to deal with these ethically challenging situations.

The book is divided into five parts:

1. An ethical tool: the zone of parental discretion
2. Roles of doctors and parents in decision-making
3. Clinicians encountering parental refusals
4. Clinicians encountering parental requests for treatment
5. Clinicians encountering parental requests for interventions on healthy children

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228772>

Annual Dividend Book 2015/16

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9780864751386

$ 415.50

Save hours of work on income tax, CGT calculation, SMSF/portfolio valuation and estate planning/deceased estate work with relevant dividend, corporate action and share price data for the most recent tax year. The book details every publicly-listed company and trust in Australia in alphabetical order and displays easy-to-read and consistent tax data for the 2015/16 tax year, giving you all the data you need in a simple and easy-to-use format.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228774>

Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS) - Are You Ready? / Wolters Kluwer

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9780994585936

$ 199.00

The BEPS project

One of the most significant changes in international taxation in at least 30 years, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) has issued final recommendations to deal with BEPS, which will have a major impact on international reporting and compliance.

Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS) — Are You Ready?

A comprehensive reference guide – providing you an overview of the BEPS project to date and equipping you with the knowledge to prepare for developments in the pipeline.

This book provides an analysis of the OECD's Action Plan on BEPS, covering each of the 15 action items with practical guidance on country-by-country reporting, the U.S. position on BEPS and the impact BEPS will have.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228775>

Australian Master Tax Guide: Tax Year End Edition - 59th Edition / Michael Chow

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925356137

$ 184.95

Confidently advise your clients and quickly navigate all areas of tax law with the market-leading guide to Australian tax. Access authoritative commentary, overviews, practical examples, tax planning points, checklists, tables and key tax dates quickly and easily. Incorporates the May 2016 Federal Budget measures, including a table to monitor their progress. Essential for all tax lawyers, accountants, financial advisors and payroll offices. Up to date to 30 June 2016.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228776>

Australian Master Family Law Guide - 8th Edition

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925397116

$ 163.00

Get up-to-date, comprehensive commentary on principles and developments in family law in Australia. Updated to reflect the latest developments in family law legislation and cases, this book has been written by experts to help you work quickly and confidently to provide accurate advice. It is easily digestible and includes precise and practical information on the family law system, children, property, child support, court processes, evidence and costs.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228777>

Australian Master Financial Planning Guide 2016/17 - 19th Edition

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925397055

$ 159.00

Financial planning regulation is constant and ongoing. This book is essential for all financial planning professionals who must accurately understand and apply their legal and professional obligations. It explains and illustrates all fundamental areas of financial planning, as well as analysis of how 2016 Federal Budget proposals and announcements may affect financial planning strategies.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228778>

Australian Master Superannuation Guide 2016/17 - 20th Edition

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925397031

$ 159.00

Essential for anyone advising on superannuation, this book explains the rules and answers your questions about superannuation law and practice in Australia and its numerous changes. Access 18 chapters of current, in-depth commentary and practical tools such as examples, tables, checklists, rates, thresholds and checklists. Up to date to 1 July 2016.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228779>

Australian Master GST Guide 2016 - 17th Edition / Philip McCouat

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925356724

$ 159.00

The best-selling Australian Master GST Guide is an essential resource for accountants, financial planners, businesses and lawyers dealing with GST.

Professionals rely on the Guide for a concise, practical, reliable and current explanation of how GST works and how to deal with it in practice. It is full of practical examples, checklists and planning strategies that enable users to find GST answers quickly.

This comprehensive new edition, fully updated to 1 January 2016, provides practical everyday guidance on GST issues, including key topics such as real property, financial transactions and imports/exports. Special emphasis is also given to the latest developments in emerging areas such as:

- digital products,
- cross-border transactions, and
- compliance agreements.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228780>

Australian GST Legislation with Overview 2016 - 19th Edition

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925356656

$ 154.00

Australian GST Legislation with Overview is an essential resource for GST advisers, accountants, lawyers and tax agents. This latest edition provides a fully-indexed and comprehensive consolidation of all legislation relating to Australia's GST system as well as all relevant luxury car tax and wine equalisation tax legislation.

It incorporates all legislative amendments enacted to 1 January 2016. Also included is a Pending legislation section that contains details of proposed GST amendments to extend the scope of the GST to offshore supplies of services and intangibles to Australian consumers from 1 July 2017.

This book also puts the following at your fingertips:

- an overview of the framework and operation of GST;
- a GST Legislation Annotator which provides a quick check of whether a specific legislative provision has been referred to in ATO rulings, determinations or cases; and
- a handy Legislation Index for easy reference.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228781>

Australian Master Human Resources Guide - 11th Edition

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925356984

$ 150.00

An invaluable information source for HR professionals and people managers. Ensure you're up to date with the strategic, practical and legal aspects of human resources management in the contemporary business environment. This edition has been comprehensively updated with the latest research and thinking on key areas such as employment law, equal opportunity, work health and safety, workers compensation, workplace bullying, social media and career management. Understand the impact of changes to the Fair Work Act 2009 on your organisation and how to achieve best practice in human resources management.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228782>

Australian Superannuation Legislation 2016 - 20th Edition

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925356748

$ 149.00

The 20th edition of Australian Superannuation Legislation reflects the numerous recent changes to superannuation law and is essential for the bookshelf of any superannuation practitioner.

It ensures readers are up to date with the numerous changes to superannuation law since the last edition, including:

- amendments to ensure that individuals whose superannuation benefits are subject to an involuntary transfer are not adversely affected by the transfer,
- look-through treatment for limited recourse borrowing arrangements entered into by superannuation funds and
- removal of the obligation for employers to offer a choice of superannuation fund to temporary resident employees.

The book contains all the essential legislation affecting superannuation funds, members and trustees, together with a summary of 2015 amending Acts and Regulations to superannuation, tax and related laws. It also contains proposed and draft legislation affecting superannuation.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228783>

Australian Master Bookkeepers Guide - 6th Edition / Stephen J Marsden
Australia : CCH Books, 2016
9781925397369
$ 140.00

Make sure you're relying on up to date information with this popular handbook for bookkeepers and accountants that covers all bookkeeping essentials as well as a range of accounting, taxation, GST and FBT issues. With revisions to its GST, FBT, payroll and superannuation chapters, this edition also reflects the new taxation rules and tax rates that apply to bookkeepers and their clients. Apply the rules confidently with worked examples, diagrams, checklists, tables and bookkeepers' FAQs. Up to date to 30 June 2016.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228784>

Strata Management in NSW
Australia : CCH Books, 2016
9781925356922
$ 140.00

NSW strata and community title law is undergoing the most extensive overhaul since the 1973 Strata Titles Act. This book provides practical analysis and comprehensive guidance on the management of Owners Corporations under the new updated laws.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228785>

Australian Corporations and Securities Legislation 2016 - Volume 1 & 2
Australia : CCH Books, 2016
9781925356823
$ 135.00

Volume 1 of Australian Corporations & Securities Legislation 2016 is consolidated to include amendments to 1 January 2016 and contains:

- Corporations Act 2001
- Corporations Regulations 2001
- Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001
- Australian Securities and Investments Commission Regulations 2001, and
- other related legislation.

This new and updated volume also includes:

- legislative history: with the full name, date of assent, date of commencement and all subsequent amending legislation for all Acts and regulations
- cross-references: from sections of the Corporations Act 2001 to relevant Corporations Regulations, ASIC Class Orders and Legislative Instruments, ASIC Forms, ASIC Regulatory Guides and Takeovers Panel Guidance Notes
- history notes: under provisions that have been inserted, substituted or amended, providing details of the amending legislation and the date of commencement
- editorial notes: to indicate errors or inconsistencies in the text of legislation and where amending legislation has been assented to but is not yet effective.

Volume 2 of Australian Corporations & Securities Legislation 2016 contains the Federal Court Rules and state and territory Supreme Court Rules applicable to proceedings under the Corporations Act 2001 and the Takeovers Panel Procedural Rules to 1 January 2016.

Ideal for barristers and solicitors conducting Corporations Act and Takeovers Panel proceedings, it also includes:

- legislative history: with the full name, date of assent, date of commencement and all subsequent amending legislation for each set of rules
- history notes: under provisions that have been inserted, substituted or amended, providing details of the amending legislation and the date of commencement
- finding aids: including index, tables of provisions for all rules, and running heads at the top and bottom of each page indicating the state, name of rule and rule number.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228787>

 Australian Fair Work Act 2009 with Regulations and Rules - 8th Edition

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925397017

$ 130.00

Access the Fair Work Act 2009 and other relevant Federal Industrial Relations Legislation at your fingertips. An essential reference for lawyers, industrial relations practitioners and human resources specialists who must stay on top of a range of employment laws and apply them accurately, this new volume incorporates all operative amendments to 1 August 2016, details the history of the legislation with each amendment, and includes a comprehensive index for ease of use.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228788>

Australian Bankruptcy Act 1966 with Regulations and Rules - 15th Edition
Australia : CCH Books, 2016
9781925397079
$ 125.00

Quickly access the core consolidated Australian bankruptcy legislation, regulations, rules, determinations and guidelines in one convenient and portable volume. Includes the Bankruptcy Act 1966, Bankruptcy (Estate Charges) Act 1997 and Cross-Border Insolvency Act and Regulations. This updated edition includes all amendments so you know you are relying on the latest information.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228789>

Small Business Tax Concessions Guide - 4th Edition / Cleary, Biti, Baxter, McCouat, Peters
Australia : CCH Books, 2016
9781925356151
$ 125.00

Understand the rules surrounding small business tax concessions and how to meet the conditions that apply. Numerous useful examples help you confidently apply the rules concerning concessions such as CGT, GST, payroll tax, simplified depreciation, trading stock and other special rules, and superannuation. Written by highly respected industry experts and current to 30 June 2016.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228790>

Australian Family Law Act 1975 with Regulations and Rules - 34th Edition
Australia : CCH Books, 2016
9781925397093
$ 110.00

Stay up to date with current legislation relevant to family law practitioners at your fingertips. This volume contains the Family Law Act 1975, Family Law Rules 2004, Family Law Regulations 1984, Federal Circuit Court Rules 2001 and a cross-referencing table from sections of the Act to relevant cases, commentary rules and regulations. Find answers quickly with shaded tabs, a comprehensive index, a cross-referencing table, a fully itemised legislative history and more.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228791>

FBT Compliance Guide 2016

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925356762

$ 105.00

The popular FBT Compliance Guide is a practical and up-to-date guide to Australia's fringe benefits tax law and is an invaluable tool for anyone required to prepare an FBT return. It provides answers to your fringe benefits questions through comprehensive commentary on how FBT works and how to deal with it in practice.

The Guide contains information on all categories of fringe benefit, exemptions and reductions in taxable value. It keeps tax agents, accountants, lawyers, employers, HR and payroll managers up to date so they can navigate the issues and provide practical and up-to-date advice to their clients.

The Guide is full of practical examples and also contains numerous workpapers to illustrate the practical application of the FBT law and assist with the preparation of FBT returns.

The 2016 edition includes:

- full coverage of FBT legislation, cases, rulings, determinations and interpretative decisions issued during 2015
- a summary of 2016 FBT return information, rates and dates
- detailed commentary on salary packaging including several examples of effective salary packaging arrangements.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228792>

Annual Dividend Book - Trust Edition 2015/2016

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925411515

$ 99.95

Don't wait until next year to get information on publicly-listed trusts' final distributions and tax-deferred components for the 2015/16 tax year. This publication allows you to service your clients with investments in trusts from October, and is the perfect companion to the Annual Dividend Book. The Trust Edition is delivered in the usual format of the Annual Dividend Book with the addition of each trusts' annual tax components.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228793>

Australian Tax Treaties 2016

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925356700

$ 90.00

A perfect accompaniment to the AUSTRALIAN INCOME TAX LEGISLATION 2016 - TAX YEAR END EDITION (EBOOK), this title provides the text of all international tax agreements entered into by Australia as at 1 January 2016.

For ease of reference, this book reproduces all of Australia's current tax treaties and Tax Information Exchange Agreements (TIEAs) in alphabetical order by country, as well as the International Tax Agreements Act and Australia's FATCA agreement with the US.

It also includes useful tables that provide relevant dates of effect for each treaty/agreement and references to the Australian Treaty Series and enacting legislation, as well as a table that summarises the maximum withholding tax rates applicable under each of the tax treaties.

A must-have for anyone advising businesses with cross-border transactions, professionals rely on this book to find the rules for how business and individuals are taxed in Australia and in foreign countries.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228794>

Total and Permanent Disablement in Superannuation and Insurance / John A Riordan

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925411256

$ 70.00

Total and Permanent Disablement in Superannuation and Insurance is an exciting new Australian work that provides a conceptual framework and in-depth consideration of the case law and its application for the purposes of evaluating total and permanent disablement in the areas of superannuation and insurance.

The first comprehensive account in this largely-ignored area in which the cover provided has often been overlooked, the book provides:

- an extensive account of the law relating to superannuation claims
- the definitions, the usual terms, and particular interpretations of disablement
- full details of the duties of trustees and insurers in the context of superannuation
- recognition of the responsibility of claimants to provide some material to support their claim
- a detailed discussion of the claims process, Court review of trustee and insurer determinations, as well as the role and function of the Superannuation Complaints Tribunal
- comprehensive discussions of over 130 cases, including both historic precedents and up-to-date case law as recent as December 2015.

The book deals with claims both under the general law and the separate statutory system and will prove to be a highly valuable resource for anyone working in, or having an interest in, this complex area of law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228795>

Understanding Business Contracts / Jason Harris and Christopher Croese
Australia : CCH Books, 2016
9781922180964
$ 50.00

Understanding Business Contracts is a quick guide designed to assist those working in business understand the practical application of contract law in their day to day dealings.

Many contract law books present the law as an abstract set of rules along with a stream of legal cases attached to each rule. By contrast, this book takes a unique approach by providing the legal context to the practical operation of everyday business contracts. It is a concise explanation of how law affects contracts and the process of contracting, from early negotiation to formation, implementation and conclusion.

This book will help businesspeople understand what is commonly found in contracts and how to navigate common pitfalls. It will assist readers better appreciate the how and why of contract law.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228796>

Quiet Outrage: The Way of a Sociologist

Australia : CCH Books, 2016

9781925411232

$ 34.95

His books about man-made disasters – gas plant accidents, oil well blowouts, train crashes, coal mine explosions – are best-sellers, read by audiences the world over. His books have been described by reviewers as page turners of scholarly thoroughness.

By his own admission, this book is “idiosyncratic” - first, he explains what led him to write books about disasters in the way he did. Second, he discusses the role of academics in bringing about social change and third, he suggests that sociologists should address people outside their discipline, and that hazardous industries and their regulators should look to sociology for input.

Read the story behind the storyteller and why Andrew Hopkins’ sense of quiet outrage about corporate negligence has contributed to making the world of work safer.

<http://www.marymartin.com/web?pid=228797>
