Don't Film Yourself Having Sex - And Other Legal Advice For The Age Of Social Media / Emma Sadleir • Tamsyn de Beer

The Penguin Group (SA), South Africa 2014

195p.;

$ 38.50 / HB

In the digital age you can get into serious legal trouble at the click of a button. The shift from passive Internet user to active digital citizen has brought about unprecedented levels of online interaction, creation and connecting. But as people begin to share more and more about themselves and their lives on social media, they are finding themselves getting into trouble for what they say and do online. Emma Sadleir and Tamsyn de Beer, who together run one of South Africa's leading social media law consultancies, point out the social traps and legal tangles that you could find yourself facing as you navigate the murky waters of the digital age. In a fun, witty and easily accessible way, this ground-breaking book details the legal, disciplinary and reputational risks that you, your company and your children face online.

By outlining the laws and rules applicable to what you do and say on social media, and providing practical and common sense advice, Don't Film Yourself Having Sex ultimately shows you that in order to reap the extraordinary benefits of digital technology without succumbing to its risks, you need to start practising responsible digital citizenship.

Justice Denied / David Klatzow

Zebra Press, South Africa 2014

296p.;

9781770226944

$ 41.75 / HB

If you are accused of a crime you did not commit, do you believe that justice will prevail in a court of law? Perhaps you should think again...• An innocent woman is almost sent to prison for eight years because of a mistaken fingerprint identification by so-called forensic experts;• a chicken farmer is hanged for a brutal murder he did not commit due to incorrect analysis of post-mortem bruising; and• a mother is sent to prison for murdering her baby daughter when a substance is falsely identified as blood...These are just some of the major forensic disasters that have occurred over the past 100 years, and which are exposed in Justice Denied. Contrary to what television series like CSI and NCIS would have one believe, forensic science does not provide instant answers to impenetrable crimes; in reality, forensic science is neither clearcut nor easy to interpret, and practitioners are not all competent – as renowned forensic scientist Dr David Klatzow proves in this book. In Justice Denied, he exposes the miscarriages of justice resulting from the faulty courtroom testimony of corrupt or incompetent forensic pathologists and unscrupulous public prosecutors who seek convictions at all costs.

Customary Law Ascertained Volume I : The customary law of the Owambo, Kavango, and Caprivi communities of Namibia / Manfred O. Hinz
Namibia Scientific Society, Namibia 2010

566p.

9789991640969

$ 100.00 / HB

The customary laws of the various traditional communities of Namibia were neglected during colonialism. Although held in high esteem by these communities, customary law was seen by colonialism to be second-class law, if law at all. The Constitution of the Republic of Namibia has changed this, Article 66 of the Constitution confirms the validity of customary law and places it at the same level of recognition as the colonially introduced Roman-Dutch common law. At the same time, however, the reconfirmation of customary law by the constitution acknowledges that the laws of traditional communities are part of the law of the independent Republic of Namibia. This means that customary law is, like any other law of the country, subject of the constitution, including the fundamental human rights and freedoms enshrined in it.

In search of Justice and peace: traditional and informal justice systems in Africa /
Manfred O Hinz (ed)

Namibia Scientific Society, Namibia 2010

463p.;
9789991640921
$ 80.00 / HB

In search of justice and peace offers articles about the very complex efforts undertaken by communities in various parts of Africa to secure justice and peace at the local level – sometimes in contrast to states, which ignore the local desire for justice or fail to provide their citizens with what a state is expected to provide, and sometimes in tandem with the institutions of the state. Traditional and informal justice systems have attracted the interest of scholars and international organisations alike.
