Proverbs in most African languages are crisp, pithy and condensed means of saying much with few words. Obii Okwelume has curated a solid collection of wisdom and inspiration from the African continent that are relevant to the custom, tradition, experience and way of life of the people. These idiomatic and at times diplomatic sayings contain moral lessons and advice that touch on all conditions of life

Cet ouvrage se veut une contribution à l'importante œuvre de réhabilitation de la culture malienne en général et de celle du songhay en particulier. Il est structuré autour de thématiques traitant de questions relatives à l'éducation, à la solidarité, à l'amitié, à la tolérance, au pardon, à la créativité et à l'esprit d'entreprise, à la prévention à la gestion des conflits entre autres. L'auteur a effectué un délicat travail de transcription et de traduction afin de montrer toute la richesse des messages véhiculés et la subtilité de leur forme d'expression. A ce titre ce travail peut être d'un apport certain dans la passation de messages pédagogiques, dans le cadre d'un enseignement bilingue et d'une grande valeur ajoutée dans la résolution de la récurrente problématique de documents pédagogiques appropriés destinés aux programmes des classes en langues nationales et même dans celles où le français demeure le medium principal. Le choix des proverbes n'est pas gratuit car, du point de vue de la didactique, ils figurent parmi les meilleurs vecteurs de la pensée. Ils initient les enfants au monde des adultes à travers les récits traditionnels.
